ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Journey of this study was full of challenges. The road was rough. But in the end we prevailed. It became manageable because of the help from different quarters. The main help came from my supervisor Dr. Shalini Marwaha, Professor, Department of Laws, Panjab University, Chandigarh. She was a constant help at every stage. From its conception, to its culmination. Words are a poor vehicle. They often do not convey the true expression of one’s gratitude. I shall forever remain indebted to her. She made my journey possible by her scholarly guidance, incisive comments and valuable suggestions. I would earnestly wish that Professor Shalini Marwaha continues to guide me in my academic ventures.

I express my special thanks to Prof. P.S. Jaswal, Chairman, Department of Laws, Panjab University, Chandigarh for providing me all necessary facilities and moral support to carry out this project.

I express my special thank to Prof. S.N. Singh Dean, faculty of Law, University of Delhi, for providing me all necessary facilities and help to carry out this project.

I am greatly thankful to Prof. Usha Razdan, faculty of Law, University of Delhi for her valuable suggestions, guidance and encouragement. I wish to express my special thanks to Prof. A.K. Bansal, faculty of Law, University of Delhi and all other faculty of Law, University of Delhi for encouraging me for the completion of the work.

I had to rely upon different libraries for the necessary material/literature. Therefore, I appreciate the cooperation extended by the library staff and librarians of Law centres, University of Delhi, the Indian Law Institute Delhi, Department of Laws, Panjab University, A.C. Joshi Library, Chandigarh.

I would like to thank my family which have been a source of strength and inspiration for me throughout. My parents have been there for me in this endeavour. Without my family, this journey would have been almost impossible and most definitely, very lonely. Besides their encouragement they have guided me academically especially my father Sh. O.P. Tobria and mother Smt. Krishna Tobria, whose instillation of sound moral values and whose non-judgmental parenting style fostered independence that has made my success possible. Words have no power to express my regard and gratitude to my elder brother Dr. Pawan. Special thanks to my dear younger brother Prem for his unending love and concern. The family gave me their valuable thing i.e. time, to make this possible. It would be a remiss, if I do not appreciate the friendly and helping nature of my husband, Dr. Parmod, who has encouraged me throughout my research work. I am also grateful to my in-laws without whose support it could have been very difficult to do my research.

I owe my deep gratitude to my loving son ‘Ryaan’ who has filled colours in my life by not disturbing me in this venture. He deserves a special thank you for being extremely accommodating due to which I could complete my work. I also extend my heartfelt thanks to my colleagues Dr. Suman Verma, Dr. Manju Relan, Dr. Sarbjit Kaur, Meena Panikar, Sunanda, Dr. Rajinder Kaur, Sushila Dagar, Preeti for encouraging me to pursue this study.

I express my deepest sense of gratitude to the Almighty, whose abundant grace and mercy has enabled me to do this project.
