The completion of thesis work demands constant supervision and guidance in manifold ways. In this respect I am very much fortunate to have Dr. Bal Krishna Professor of Laws Panjab University, Chandigarh as my guide with whom I am associated for more than a decade. He was most generous with his time inspite of his heavy academic schedules. His comments on each Chapter, both at the stage of planning and arrangements were in the form of fresh thought, giving clues to approach the same aspect from a different perspective. I must say that to work under him was not only a great education and experience, that any student can desire for, but at the same a cherished privilege to be sought for.

I am grateful to Dr. Virinder Kumar, Professor of Laws, Panjab University who not only encouraged me but provided every help in completion of this work.

My sincere thanks are due to Professor R.K. Bangia, Chairman Department of Laws, Panjab University, Chandigarh for his cooperation and inspiration to undertake research in the field of ‘Charitable trusts’

My sincere thanks are also due to Dr. R.S. Grewal, Reader, Department of Laws for sincere advice and encouragement for completing this work.

To the Officers and personnel of Federation of Indian Chamber of Commerce and Industry, Ministry of Finance, American Centre, Ratan Tata Library, Indian Law Institute, Delhi University Library, Jawahar Lal Nehru University Library, National Institute of Public Finance and Policy, Panjab University Library, Law Department Library and various other Income tax departments. I am much obliged for their help in placing in valuable literature at my disposal.

Finally, my sincere thanks are also due to Mr. Ramesh Goyal, Mr. J.C. Arora & Mr. S.C. Chhabra Advocates, Panjab & Haryana High Court, my colleagues and dear friends, because it is they, who have given me affection prompting which I consider valuable and necessary for any meaningful academic pursuits.
