ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The completion of any academic work is inconceivable without the expert guidance of a mentor. The completion of thesis work needs constant supervision and constructive guidance in manifold ways. It gives me immense pleasure to express my sincere gratitude to my esteemed Guide Dr. R.S. Grewal, Professor Department of Laws, P.U. Chandigarh, and Director of University Institute of Legal Studies, P.U. Chandigarh, for his guidance, encouragement, support and keen interest to make this study possible and meaningful. Despite his heavy preoccupations, not only he took lively interest, but also gave wise and sound consultations during the preparation and final completion of this thesis. He was gracious enough to go through the final manuscript. I own him a sincerest debt to gratitude not repayable in any form.

My profound thanks are due to my parents and my respected Mama Ji S. Bachman Singh, for their love, affection, support, encouragement, their blessings and silent prayers, through out my academic carrier, especially for the successful completion of the present research work.

I also acknowledge with gratitude the help given to me by my dear sister Dr. Harpreet Kaur and brother-in-law Dr. Gurbindbir Singh in collecting case studies and providing observations and requisite knowledge about the concept. I also express my expression of gratitude and thanks to my brother Amritpal Singh for his assistance in correcting and setting the thesis during the final stage of completion.

I place on record my appreciation for help extended to me by my friend Advocate Ruchi Sekhri for her commendable cooperation, scholarly viewpoint, valuable suggestions and munificent moral support at various stages of this work.

I am under special debt of gratitude for help rendered to me by Mr. Vikram Singh by providing requisite material during the course of completion of this study. My heartfelt thanks to Mr. Kaveen Gupta, for his moral support and strength. I also thank my friend Sukhbir for encouraging me throughout.

I express my sincere thanks to NGOs, hospitals, different institutions, and people in general for the necessary assistance, expert guidance and help in the present research, in collection of observations during empirical study. They were very helpful in data collections and making figures available for the present study.

I would be failing my duty, if I don't make a mention of my great sense of gratitude for the co-operation extended by the library staff and librarians of the Department of Laws, P.U. Chandigarh, Indian Law Institute Delhi, National Human Rights Commission Library Delhi, Parliamentary Library Delhi, Punjab University Extension Library Ludhiana, Dayanand Medical College and Hospital Library Ludhiana, Punjab Agricultural University's Library Ludhiana for providing the relevant material throughout my research work, without which the present study could not have been possible.
Last, but not the least, I thank Dr. Kamaljeet Singh, Director UE, P.U. Regional Centre, Ludhiana and my colleague Ms. Arti Puri, for their support and time. And all of them, who have directly and indirectly helped me in completion of this research. Special Thanks to Mr. Vicky for giving a final shape to this manuscript.

Thanks to God for giving me the strength and wisdom to complete this work.
