ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Feeling gratitude and not expressing it is like wrapping a present and not giving it.

-William Arthur Ward

Through the column of this page, I take this opportunity of expressing my deep sense of gratitude and indebtedness to a humble guide, teacher & mentor, Dr. Shalini Marwaha, Professor, Department of Laws, Panjab University, Chandigarh, whose unconditional help, encouragement and guidance kept my spirits high during my work. My words fall short in expressing the support she gave me mentally and materially in the process of tying my sparse thoughts into a thread of expression and direction. This work is an outcome of her blessings and advice when ever and where ever I required.

I also express my special thank to the chairperson Prof. Nishtha jaiswal and all the other staff members of the department as well as the library.

I further gratefully extend my word of thanks to the staff members of Center for International Studies, New Delhi as well as the library staff of Indian Law Institute, for assisting me in collecting the resourceful material of my work.

It would be a remiss, if I do not appreciate the concerned officers of the Wild Life Department, of the state of Punjab, Haryana and Chandigarh, who provided all the required material to colour the framework of my research with real image.

My ardent gratitude to my parents for their support, family members for their concern and to my cherished as well as treasured sisters Ritu and Namita who constantly inspired me throughout the journey of this work.

Above all I like to give my deepest thanks to my loving sons ‘Saksham and Shaurya’, and my husband Rahul, without whom my world is meaningless.

Inexpressible in words, my deepest sense of gratitude to the Almighty, whose plentiful grace and mercy has enabled me to do this project.

Kusum Pal
29.11.2011