CONTENTS

| Acknowledgements                      | Page(s) | 1 |
| Table of Cases                        |         | ix-xl |

INTRODUCTION

- Origin and Development of Taxation | 8 |
- Objectives                         | 14 |
- The Indian Tax Structure and Objectives | 18 |
- Welfare State-Socio-Economic Development and Planning in India | 22 |
- The Plan Objectives                | 25 |
- Sources of Financing               | 29 |
- Public Revenues                    | 37 |
- State Enterprises                  | 60 |
- Personal Taxation                  | 64 |
- Personal Income-tax in India       | 67 |
- Object and Reasons of 1961 Act     | 68 |
- Role of Personal Income-tax        | 73 |
- Concept of Tax on Hindu Undivided Family | 75 |

Chapter I  CONCEPT OF PERSONAL TAXATION

- Origin and Development of Taxation | 8 |
- Objectives                         | 14 |
- The Indian Tax Structure and Objectives | 18 |
- Welfare State-Socio-Economic Development and Planning in India | 22 |
- The Plan Objectives                | 25 |
- Sources of Financing               | 29 |
- Public Revenues                    | 37 |
- State Enterprises                  | 60 |
- Personal Taxation                  | 64 |
- Personal Income-tax in India       | 67 |
- Object and Reasons of 1961 Act     | 68 |
- Role of Personal Income-tax        | 73 |
- Concept of Tax on Hindu Undivided Family | 75 |

Chapter II  JOINT HINDU FAMILY A UNIQUE CONCEPT AND COPARCENARY

I. Joint Hindu Family

- Origin | 76 |
- Development | 79 |
- Nature and Incidents | 80 |
- Joint Family vis-a-vis Corporation, Joint Tenancy and Composite Family | 84 |
- Presumption of Jointness | 86 |

II. Coparcenary

- Origin and Development | 91 |
- Nature of Coparcenary | 91 |
- Incidents of Coparcenaryship | 102 |
- Status of son in Embryo | 103 |
- Status of Illegitimate son as Coparcener | 108 |
- Status of Illegitimate son as Coparcener | 109 |
Chapter III

INCOME-TAX AND HINDU UNDIVIDED FAMILY

- Concept
- Hindu Undivided Family Concept
- Who come within the ambit of Hindu Law?
- Meaning of
- Tax-incidents
  (a) Where the H.U.F. consists of father and a son or grandson in direct line of descent
  (b) Where the H.U.F. consists of collaterals
- Change of Status of the Assessee
  (a) Sole surviving coparcener and females entitled to maintenance
  (b) No male member-only females
  (c) Sole surviving coparcener without any female or minor entitled to maintenance
  (d) Widow with unmarried daughter, no male
- Continuance of H.U.F.
- Status of H.U.F. (Onus)

Chapter IV

PROPERTY

I. Concept of Joint Hindu Family Property or Income
  (i) Hindu Law
    - Ancestral
      - Individual
  (ii) Income-Tax Law

II. Blending
  - Concept and Scope
  - Effect of Blending separate property or income with family property
    - Whether nucleus essential
Chapter V

THE MANAGER OF THE HINDU UNDIVIDED FAMILY

- Effect of Blending for Income-tax purposes
  - Whether partition amounts to transfer of property
  - Father converting his separate property to Hindu undivided family property
  - Application of Section 64(2)
  - Circumstances for attracting the positions of Section 64(2)
  - Legal fiction
  - Avoidance of Double taxation

Page(s)

- 178
- 180
- 182
- 185
- 186
- 187
- 191
- 193-230
- 194
- 196
- 198
- 199
- 199
- 201
- 202
- 203
- 204
- 205
- 206
- 206
- 206
- 209
- 209
- 214
- 219
- 221
- 221
- 223

(A) General Powers
  - Power over income and expenditure
  - Power to contract debts
  - Power to acknowledge and give discharge for debts
  - Power to Compromise
  - Power to refer disputes to arbitration
  - Power to represent the family in suits
  - Power to enter into contracts

(B) Special Powers
  - Power of Alienation
  - Karta other than father
    - Legal necessity
    - Benefits of estate
    - Indispensable duties
  - Father as Karta
    - Gifts of love and affection
    - Gifted property and tax assessability
Chapter-VI ASSESSMENT

I. Assessment and residential status of H.U.F. as assessee:
   - Assessment
     - When Assessment Complete
   - Assessee
     - Ascertainment of residential or non-residential status of H.U.F.
       - Resident
       - Not ordinarily resident

II. Exemptions from tax on receipt of members from H.U.F.:
   - Maintenance allowance
   - Maintenance to widows
   - Maintenance under the Hindu Adoption and Maintenance Act 1956

III. Application and diversion of Income

Chapter-VII PARTITION

I. Hindu Law Concept
   - Severance of Status
     - Communication when effective
   - Partition by metes and bounds

II. Disruption of H.U.F. Under the Income-tax Law
   - Partition a question of fact
III. Distinction with Hindu Law Concept
   - Physical Division
   ... ... 303
   ... ... 303

IV. Assessment after Disruption
   ... ... 310
   A. Assessment After Total Partition
      - Inquiry must follow claim
      - Assessment of individual coparcener
      - Assessment for periods prior to partition
      ... ... 315
      ... ... 318
      ... ... 320
      ... ... 321
   B. Assessment after Partial Partition
      ... ... 324

V. Res Judicata
   ... ... 330

Chapter-VIII JOINT HINDU FAMILY BUSINESS
   ... ... 335-387
   A. Ancestral Business
      - New Business
      ... ... 335
      ... ... 338
      - Elements of Joint Family Firms
      ... ... 343
      - Joint Family Business or Partnership
      ... ... 343
      - Distinction between Hindu Family Firm and Ordinary Partnership
      ... ... 344
      - Presumption
      ... ... 351
      - Partnership with Strangers
      ... ... 353
      - Assessment
      ... ... 355
   B. Ancestral Business converted to Partnership
      ... ... 361
      - Validity of Partnership
      ... ... 364

I. Succession to or Discontinuance of Family Business
   - Succession-What it is ?
   ... ... 366
   ... ... 367
   - Succession to H.U.F.Business
   ... ... 370
   - Test of Succession
   ... ... 371
II. Discontinuance
   - Object of S. 176
   - Discontinued Business
   - Distinction

III. Change in Constitution (effect)
   - Assessment
   - Notice in case of discontinued business
   - Service by Post
   - Service otherwise than by post

IV. Recovery of Tax

Chapter IX: PARTNERSHIP

I. H.U.F. vis-a-vis Partnership
   - Hindu undivided family paying salary to its members
   - Karta as Partner
     - Partnership between Karta and individual members of the HUF
     - Karta of HUF as partner with outsider or a separated member of HUF

II. Registration of partnership
   - Registration where coparcener enters into partnership with Karta without individual investment
   - Registration where coparcener enters into partnership with Karta by investing his separate assets
   - Registration of firm represented by two coparceners with strangers

III. Karta's obligations to H.U.F.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Chapter-X</th>
<th>Proprietary Rights of Females in Hindu Undivided Family and Tax Incidence</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Nature of interest under the Hindu Women's Right to Property Act, 1937</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Mother as Manager</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Effect of Section 14 of Hindu Succession Act, 1956.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Object of Section 14</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Assessment</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

| I.         | Section- 6                                                             |
|            | Assessment                                                             |
| II.        | Section - 8                                                            |
|            | Assessment                                                             |
|            | Conclusion                                                            |
|            | Bibliography                                                          |