ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

“No one who achieves success does so without acknowledging the help of others. The wise and confident acknowledge this help with gratitude.”

Alfred North Whitehead

As I submit my thesis, I appreciate that the same would not have been possible without the guidance and the help of several individuals who in one way or another contributed and extended their valuable assistance in the preparation and completion of this study.

First and foremost, I express my utmost gratitude to my supervisor Dr. (Mrs) Paramjit Kaur, Associate Professor, Department of Laws, Panjab University, for her support, guidance and consistent encouragement which I received throughout the research work. Despite her busy schedules and other pressing commitments, she has always made herself available to clarify my doubts, to review my thesis progress, give her valuable suggestions and make corrections.

I would like to express the deepest appreciation to Dr. (Mrs) Nishitha Jaiswal, Chairperson, Department of Laws, Panjab University for her guidance, help and for her direction with my thesis. I am also grateful to all the faculty members of the Department of Laws, Panjab University, for their constant support and help.

Any research is not possible without the Library, the centre of learning resources. I take this time to express my gratitude to all the library staff of the law department, Panjab University for their help and services.

I am forever indebted to my parents for encouraging and supporting me throughout the progress of my thesis.

I would like to thank my husband, Uma Shanker for keeping his faith in me and for helping me in my thesis with his familiarity in the field of vessel sourced marine pollution.
Internet browsing and computer proficiency would not have been possible for me and my research but for the technical expertise of my sister and brother in law. So my special thanks goes to Rohini Kukreti Walia and Anurag Walia.

I cannot miss out thanking my sons, Madhav Mohan Dimri and Mukund Vandam Dimri for keeping me infused with their smiles and energy. Thank you both.

Finally, my greatest regards to the Almighty for bestowing upon me the courage to face the complexities of life and complete this project successfully.
