Appendix-II

Respected Sir,

I am a research scholar, involved in carrying out a study Justice Delivery in India - A critique (with special reference to Supreme Court). I would appreciate if you could spare some valuable time and answer the few questions given below. This information is very important since this is going to be the part of an important research initiative. All information provided whilst filling this questionnaire will be kept confidential and limited to academic purposes only.

Questionnaire
Meant for Academic use only. Information given will be kept Confidential (if so desired.)
Justice Delivery in India: A critique (with special reference to Supreme Court)

1. Response of Law Teachers:
   Name : __________________
   Address : __________________
   Designation : __________________
   Qualification : __________________

2. Should Public Interest Litigation be entertained liberally?
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________

3. What are the major challenges before Justice Delivery System in India?
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________
4. Major/Seminal issues before Judiciary?

5. Do you think Judiciary has been able to protect the rights of the citizens?

6. It is said that under 'Judicial Activism' Judiciary in fact has encroached upon the areas hitherto reserved for the Legislature and the Executive. Do you agree with it or not? Give your views.

7. There is no agency existing in India to which judges can be made accountable. Do you think judges too should be made accountable to some forum or institution? If yes, then suggest the composition of such agency. If not, then suggest measures to tackle errant judges?

8. Do you think amendments introduced in Civil Procedure Code in the year 2002 will help improving Justice delivery in India?
9. What reforms do you suggest in Civil and Criminal law field for making Justice Delivery more effective and meaningful for common man?

Thank you very much for your co-operation