ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This work “Economic Assessment of Handloom and Powerloom Industry in Karnataka – A Case Study of Ramdurg Taluka” is an outcome of valuable assistance, co-operation, guidance, support and encouragement of many persons in many ways. It is my proud privilege to acknowledge the assistance received by me from different corners.

First of all, I am proud enough to express my sincere thanks to my Research Guide and supervisor Dr. (Smt.) V. Sharada, Associate Professor, Department of Economics, Karnatak Arts College, Dharwad, for her exquisite and exemplary guidance, untiring efforts and personal interest shown to me throughout my research work. I also thank the former Principal Dr. (Smt.) S.S. Herlekar and the present Principal Dr. S.S. Kattimani of Karnatak Arts College, Dharwad for having provided me space and other facilities for the pursuance of my research work continuously in place of my Research Guide.

I record my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. L.D. Vaikunthe, Chairman, P.G. Department of Studies in Economics; and faculty members of both teaching and non-teaching of the department, Karnatak University, Dharwad for supporting and encouraging me to complete this work.

I am thankful to University Grants Commission, South Western Regional Office, Bangalore, for awarding me the teacher fellowship under Faculty Improvement Programme during XI plan period, which helped me to undertake my research work speedily.
I am also thankful to the Director, CDC, Karnataka University, Dharwad Dr. F.M. Sanningannavar, and his office staff for their timely help and information provided to me with regard to FIP.

I also express my deep sense of obligation to the former President Dr. Y.B. Kulagod, and Present President Sri. P.F. Patil and members of Vidya Prasarak Samiti; the Principal, teaching and non-teaching staff of CSB Arts, SMRP Science and GLR Commerce college of Ramdurg, for their support received in completion of my research study.

The field investigation would not have been completed on time without the co-operation of the weavers of Ramdurg taluka (respondents). I thank them for their hospitality and their willingness in providing me necessary information during the course of my research study.

I should render my deep sense of gratitude to the Director, chairpersons, and office staff of KHDC, Bangalore; Handlooms and Textiles Department, Bangalore; khadi and village Industries Commission Bangalore; and Sri. T. Siddanna, Dy. Director, Sri. H.B. Patil, textile promotion officer and the office staff of Handlooms and Textiles Department of Belagavi; the project Inspector Sri. G.S. Dixit and the staff members of IHDP center office at Ramdurg; the office staff members of Khadi Co-operative Society Hudli; Sri. Kadakol Y.B., Munoli, Dr. Javali S.B., S.D.M Dental College, Sri. Ravi Gudi and Sri. Vinay Ganjigatti, for their assistance in collecting the required data for this research work.

I have extensively used the relevant information from the books, published research papers and other unpublished sources. This treasure of knowledge was made available to me by the library staff, Karnataka University, Dharwad; Centre for Multi Disciplinary Development Research Centre, Dharwad; Shivaji University, Kolhapur; Institute for Social and Economic change Bangalore. I acknowledge their help in this regard.

My special thanks are due to Dr. Iranna Hatti, Retired Vice-principal, STC College, Banahatti and Dr. Smt Neelakka Patil, Mruthunjaya College, Dharwad, Smt. Ratna Kadapatti, G.H. College, Haveri and Dr. Harilal Pawar, Director, Prasarang Karnatak University, Dharwad, for their valuable informal support in preparing this work.

I wish to express my indebtedness and gratitude to my husband Sri. Suresh Gudaganavar and my daughter Anupama for bearing my involvement in research study and extending all type of co-operation and assistance in preparing this work.

Finally, I will be failing in my duty if I do not express my gratitude to my parents, mother-in-law, brothers and Smt. Renuka, my sister-in-law, and Dr. Nagaraj, Associate Professor, Anjuman College, Dharwad, my brother-in-law and his daughters Kumari Soumaya and Laxmi and Kumar Manjunath and Ashok Gonabal. I whole heartedly express my thanks to Shri Raghavendra Prabhu for his nice DTP work and all friends for their support and good wishes.
