ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Going through the process of the present study, has been a pleasant and memorable experience. It was further sweetened with an intense feeling of affection, cooperation, motivation accompanied with blessings and benedictions. But for the meaningful and massive cooperation of all those, who mattered in this process, perhaps it would have not been possible for me to accomplish this piece of work.

While retrospecting in the stream of gratitude, the first person whom my heart craves to mention is my supervisor Dr. Virendra Kumar, LLM, SJD (Toronto), UGC Emritus fellow, Ex-Professor and Head of Department of Laws, Ex-Dean Faculty of Laws and ex-fellow Panjab University, Chandigarh. It was his affectionate motivation, which made me step in this field. His kind but critical appreciation of the work led it to a meaningful conclusion. His sagacious supervision and frank and straight communications during personal conferences was an exposing experience. The scholar in him could just be experienced and cherished and it can’t be explained.

In the same stream of consciousness, I convey my heart-felt gratitude to my co-supervisor, Dr. Vijay Nagpal, Reader Department of Laws, Panjab University, Chandigarh. His friendly, affectionate and scholarly guidance always made me confident and energised. He was always available to me to provide practical solutions to complex issues arising in the process.

I would take this opportunity to convey my heart-felt gratitude to Sh. G.S. Singhvi Chief Justice, Andhra Pradesh High Court. He had been kind enough to spare his precious time to grant very revealing exposure to the subject, as a Judge of Punjab & Haryana High Court at Chandigarh. I am equally, thankful to Justice S.K Mittal of Punjab and Haryana High Court, who also extended his valuable help in the matter. Mr. Haripal Verma and Sh. S.K. Lamba, Advocates had also been very cooperative and helpful during the process.
I am also indebted to the members of my family for their positive motivation. The affectionate blessings and benedictions of my old mother have always been a source of energy to me. In spite of unfortunate demise of my father during my infancy, she provided me every opportunity to grow and flourish both in academics and service.

The contribution of my wife Mrs. Kala Yadav has also been highly cooperative and appreciative, when she allowed me to accomplish this work after hectic office hours.

Last but not the least, I am thankful to Mr. Santosh Kumar, Computer Operator, who helped in typing and designing of this piece of work.

It was really a wonderful experience, which would be cherished forever.

Place: Chandigarh
Date: Feb. 14, 2006

Abhe Singh