ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I owe a deep sense of gratitude for my guide Professor N. C. Sarma, an outstanding scholar in the field of Folklore Research, who has been kind enough to supervise my work all throughout and go through all the drafts at various stages offering valuable comments and necessary revisions.

I am indebted to the University Grants Commission (UGC) North East Regional Office (NERO), Guwahati for granting me a Minor Research Project Grant during the 11th plan, which helped me financially in carrying out the proposed research work.

During my study, I visited Department of Folklore Research Library, G.U.; NEHU Library, Shillong; Pune University Library; K. K. Handique Library, GU.; the departmental libraries of MIL and Folklore Research, G.U. and the North Eastern Historical Research Centre, Guwahati. I offer my thanks to the staff members for their kind permission in using and borrowing relevant study materials.

My heartfelt thanks go to my colleagues of Nalbari College, particularly faculty members of the Department of English, the library staff of Dr. T. N. Goswami Library for their courtesy and co-operation at different stages of my research. Especially I wish to offer my profound and sincere gratitude to Dr. T. N. Saloi, Principal, Nalbari College, Amar Kr. Nayak, HOD of English for the support, co-operation and invaluable suggestions they have extended during my research period.

I am beholden to my parents Dr. B. K. Bhattacharyya and Bhabani Bhattacharyya for their unflagging encouragement and persistent urging from start to finish of my study. Specially I can’t forget my mother’s unfailing willingness to shoulder the responsibility of my household chores in spite of her ill health whenever I needed it the most.
Thanks must go to my husband Satyen and wards Ron and Reeti for their bearing with me so patiently during the whole period of research offering moral support at the most crucial time.

I take the opportunity of paying homage to my father-in-law late Bipin Ch. Sarma who is no more to see the completion of my work.

Special thanks must go for my family members particularly sister Anjana and brother Sushanta and Diganta for their love, care and continual concern in my well-being, which enables me to undertake and sustain this academic work to the end.

I am extremely thankful to my brothers-in-law (Jiten da, Satyanath bhindeu, Nabajyoti, Apurba and Chinmoy) and sisters-in-law (baideu-Nilima and Alaka), Gitanjali, Sambita and Bandita, Pradyumna and Ratan for their help either directly or indirectly all throughout the journey.

Date: July/2012 Ranjana Bhattacharyya