EXPRESSION OF GRATITUDE

The journey of this study began three years back. This journey was full of challenges. The road was rough. But in the end, we prevailed. It became manageable because of the help from different quarters. The main help came from my supervisor Professor Veer Singh, earlier Chairman, Department of Laws, Panjab University, Director General, Army Institute of law, Mohali and now Dean University Instructions, Panjab University, Chandigarh. He was a constant help at every stage. From its conception, to its culmination. Words are a poor vehicle. They often do not convey the true expression of one’s gratitude. I shall forever remain indebted to him. He made my journey possible. I would earnestly wish that Professor Veer Singh continues to guide me in my academic ventures.

In this very process, Professor R. S. Grewal, Director, Institute of Legal Studies, Panjab University was helpful in so many ways. I could freely draw upon his long experience. I owe my debt of gratitude to him. Professor Dr. Kulwant Gill, former Chairperson of Department of Laws, Panjab University provided the necessary encouragement at different stages. Thank you very much.

A special mention is due of Professor S. L. Sharma, Director Institute of Correctional Administration, Chandigarh. He was helpful in providing the sociological aspects particularly in structuring the Interview Schedule. Sir, thank you so much.

In carrying out this piece of work, I got the opportunity to discuss and interact with judges, lawyers, law teachers and members of the armed forces including Lt. General J.L. Malhotra, Mr. Sarabjit Singh, IPS, former DGP, Panjab, Dr. (Mrs.) Kiran Bedi, IPS, Mr. K.T.S. Tulsi, senior advocate, formerly Additional Solicitor General, Mr. R.S. Cheema, Advocate General Punjab, Prof. I.P. Massey formerly Member, Human Rights Commission, Himachal Pradesh and people from various other fields. I have immensely benefited from their inputs based upon their practical experience.

I had to rely upon different libraries for the necessary material/literature. Therefore I make special mention with regard to the help that I got from the library staff of the libraries: American Information Resource Centre, Delhi, British Library, Delhi and Chandigarh, Indian Law Institute Delhi, Jawaharlal Nehru University, Delhi, ICSSR Centre, Delhi and Chandigarh, Indian Society of International Law, Delhi, Army Institute of Law, Mohali, AC. Joshi Library, Chandigarh and Department of Laws, Chandigarh.

I would like to thank my family which has been a source of strength and inspiration for me. My parents have been there for me in this endeavour. Without my family, this journey would have been almost impossible and most definitely, very lonely. Besides their encouragement they have also guided me academically especially my father Dr. Balram Gupta, my husband Jasjit Bedi and my brother Shireesh Gupta. The family gave me their most valuable thing i.e. time, to make this possible. For this the person who deserves a special thank you is my son Gurmehar, who would also entertain me with his pranks. I would like to express my heart felt gratitude to them, as without them this research would have been incomplete.
