PREFACE

The present study entitled "DEVELOPMENT OF HEALTH CARE SYSTEM IN THE MADRAS STATE (1940-'52)" attempts to provide an analysis of the essential features of the Health Care System that existed in the Madras State during the period 1940-'52 and a brief scan of the further developments during the subsequent years. It identifies the hardcore public health problems, some of which still continue to persist and suggests appropriate remedial measures.

I take this opportunity to express my gratitude to all those who helped me in the course of preparation of this study.

At the first instance, I am grateful to my research supervisor Dr. E. DIVIEN, Professor, Department of Indian History for his able and patient guidance at every stage of preparation of this thesis. But for his able guidance, the present thesis could not have been accomplished in its proper perspective. I am also thankful to Dr. P. JAGADEESAN, Professor and Head of Department of Indian History, University of Madras for keeping continued interest in the progress of this study. I express my gratitude to Dr. SAROJINI SHERRY, Principal, Anna Adarsh College for Women, Madras for permitting me to continue to do my research work for Ph.D. as a part-time candidate in the University of Madras, and for encouraging me to complete this work.

I shall be failing in my duty if I do not thank the several officials of the Public Health and Preventive Medicine, Medical Services, Family Welfare and Medical Education Departments whose unstinted support by way of providing necessary information and data helped me in the preparation of this thesis.

I also wish to express my deep appreciation of the co-operation and support I received from the Commissioner, Librarian and Staff of the Tamil Nadu State Archives, Madras, Director of Public Libraries, Madras, Librarian, Connemara Public Library, Madras, Librarian, Madras University Library, Madras, the Madras Secretariat Library, the Legislative Assembly and the Legislative Council Libraries, Madras.

I am thankful to the Vice-Chancellor and the Syndicate of the Madras University for the permission accorded to me to carry on my research for Ph.D. Degree in the Department of Indian History.

C. Kailasa Sundari.

(C. KAILASA SUNDARI)