ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First of all, I would like to reverentially thank GOD for giving the opportunity to do research and for helping me with HIS GRACE to complete it.

Words cannot express well enough, the gratitude I have towards my Supervisor and Guide Dr. V. D. Swaminathan, Reader in Psychology, Department of Psychology, University of Madras. Without his expert guidance and encouragement of the "Researcher" in me, this work would have been impossible.

I would like to extend my thanks to Dr. M. S. Kalanidhi, the former Head of the Department of Psychology for granting me permission to conduct my research. I am also thankful to Dr. K. V. Kaliappan, the present Head of the Department for giving me support and encouragement.

I thank Dr. S. Parvathi, Dr. V. S. R. Vijayakumar, Dr. S. Karunanidhi, Dr. Latha Sathish, Dr. Ramji Ray, Mr. K. Senthilathibhan, all other staff members and my research colleagues for all the help they rendered to me.

I thank Dr. A. T. Beck for giving permission to use his scales for the present study. I also wish to thank Dr. Naomi R. Dank, Associate Director, Beck Institute for Cognitive Therapy, for sending me Beck Institute Educational Materials which were very useful for my research work.

I am grateful to my teachers at NIMHANS, Bangalore, Dr. Haripad Mishra, Dr. V. Kumariah and Senior Psychiatrist Dr. K. Kuruvilla who had all trained me in Cognitive-Behaviour Therapy (C.B.T.) and induced confidence in me as a therapist.

I thank Dr. J. P. Balodhi, Associate Professor of Philosophy, Department of Clinical Psychology, NIMHANS, for briefing me about Cognitive-Behaviour Therapy as mentioned in ancient Indian literature.
My sincere thanks to Dr.N.S.Murali, Secretary, Voluntary Health Service Centre, Adyar, for granting me permission to do my main data collection at the psychiatry department of his organization.

I wish to thank the following psychiatrists: Dr.S.Vijayakumar, Dr.Lakshmi Vijayakumar, Dr.Mani, Dr.Radha Shankar, Dr.R.K.Rudhran and Dr.N.Rangarajan for their active help in referring cases to me for Cognitive-Behaviour Therapy. I also wish to thank Dr.K.Rangaswami, Assistant Professor-Cum-Clinical Psychologist, Institute of Mental Health and Miss.Mala, Clinical Psychologist, V.H.S. for giving me support and encouragement.

My thanks are due to Mr.G.Narayanan, who carried out the Statistical Analysis of the data.

My sincere appreciation and thanks are also due to my father-in-law, Mr.T.Singaravelu and my sister-in-law Miss.S.Swarnalakshmi, who patiently went through the manuscripts and made valuable corrections with regard to the syntax and grammar.

I would also like to offer my sincere thanks to Miss.D.Thenuga for neatly typing my thesis and Students Xerox, Adyar Branch for neatly Xeroxing and Binding the same.

My sincere appreciation to my family members and especially to my dear wife S.Yamuna for their moral support and timely help.

I dedicate this small work to Jiddu Krishnamurthi (J.K. / Krishnaji) and Mother Teresa.
