ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is indeed, a privilege as well as a pleasant duty to express my gratitude to all those who have made it possible for me to complete this thesis.

I would like to convey my profound gratitude and regards to my guide, Prof. P.B. Mahapatra, Professor, Mechanical Engineering Department, PEC University of Technology, (Formerly Punjab Engineering College), Chandigarh for his keen interest and painstaking supervision throughout the period of this study. I am grateful for his incisive comments and insightful suggestions that have helped me to remove many lacunae from this project.

My deepest gratitude and regards to my esteemed guide Dr. K. S. Sangwan, Associate Professor, Mechanical Engineering Department, Birla Institute of Technology and Science, Pilani, who shared with me a lot of his experience, expertise, knowledge and research insight. Working with him was an experience which I shall cherish forever Without his guidance, support and personal involvement, the work would not have seen the light of the day. His enthusiasm, patience and encouragement in helping me to steer through this thesis are invaluable

I wish to thank Prof. Manoj Dutta, Director, PEC University of Technology, Chandigarh for giving me an opportunity to do the research in the area of my interest. I am highly grateful to Dr. V.P. Singh, Head, Mechanical Engineering Department, PEC University of Technology, Chandigarh for providing the necessary infrastructure and other facilities.

I am indebted to the numerous contributors from industries, particularly Mr. Arvinder Jit Singh Sekhon, Prinicipal, Technical Training Institute, (P.S.E.B) Patiala and Mr. Aman Kansal, who have helped in data collection and on various issues related to the research.
I am extremely thankful to Mr. Varinder Kumar Mittal, Mr. Girish Kant, Abhijit K. Digalwar, Mr. Anil Jindal, and Mr. Navneet Khanna of Birla Institute of Technology and Science, Pilani for extending a helping hand during my stay at Pilani.

I owe thanks to all my friends and colleagues for their help and cooperation at every step in this study.

My work would be incomplete without the constant support and inspiration of my family. A very special expression of appreciation is extended to my mother Mrs. Surinder Jit Kaur, wife Mrs. Puneet and son Master Ishaan Preet Singh. Without their encouragement, patience, and understanding this endeavor would not have been possible.

Perminder Jit Singh
