Acknowledgments

First and foremost I would like to thank Dr. Shobha G. for accepting me as her PhD scholar and introducing me to the world of research. Her encouragement, supervision and support enabled me to grow up as a Ph.D. She has always been a wonderful source of advice and suggestions. Without her supervision, continuous guidance it would not have been possible to reach this milestone of my educational career. Lot of her valuable time was spent on the discussion related to my research. It has really helped me to complete the research work. I appreciate her assistance of time and effort to complete the research on time. The discussions provided me ideas and lot of feedback on different parts of my research.

I thank Rashtreeya Shikshana Samithi Trust for continuous support and encouragement.

I express my sincere gratitude towards Dr. B.S.Satyanarayana, Principal, R.V.C.E. for facilitating the research environment and infrastructure.

I thank Prof. Chandrashekar S., Department of CSE, RVCE, for reviewing the chapters.

I thank Dr. S.Sridhar, Dean, Centre for Cognitive Technologies for his timely cooperation. I also thank Dr. S.A.HariPrasad, former Director, R.V.Centre for Cognitive Technologies for his constant support and encouragement during the entire course of research work.

I take this opportunity to thank Dr. C.J.Prabhakar, Chairman, Department of Computer Science, Kuvempu University, Dr. Narasimhamurthy, Chairman, Department of Mathematics, Kuvempu University and Dr. Bagewadi, Department of Mathematics, Kuvempu University for all the support during the course of research. Also my special thanks to all the supporting staff in the department and University.

I am grateful to Prof. B.I.Khodanpur, former HOD, Department of CSE, R.V.C.E. for the valuable discussion, during the course of PhD registration process, which gave me a lot of moral support. A special thanks to him for his support and encouragement during my down times.
My deepest gratitude and thanks to my parents who have always unconditionally supported me in all my pursuits. Their support is always the key to keep me going in all the situations. Without their blessings, I would not have been able to manage my education, career and family. I thank my husband and children for their love, understanding and support throughout the research work.

Lot of friends, colleagues and students who have helped, cooperated and collaborated with me during the research work in several ways, directly or indirectly. My sincere thanks to each one of them.

[Signature]

Shanta Rangaswamy