

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is a pleasure to thank many people who have helped me made this thesis possible.

My PhD years at the Panjab University, Chandigarh and this thesis have had mentorship from numerous outstanding individuals both from within the university and outside of it. It is to these individuals that took part in my study, that my heartfelt gratitude and thanks go out to, for without their help, this thesis would not have seen its day.

It is difficult to overstate my gratitude to my Ph.D. supervisor, "Dr. Ranbir Kaur." With her enthusiasm, inspiration, and great efforts to explain things clearly and simply helped me to make competition laws fun for me. Throughout my thesis-writing period, she provided encouragement, sound advice, good teaching, good company, and lots of good ideas. I would have been lost without her.

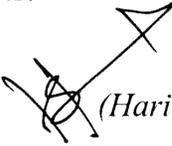

I would like to thank Prof. Richard Whish who taught me Competition laws during my LL.M at King's College, University of London, United Kingdom.

I wish to thank my best friends in boarding school at Punjab Public School, Nabha and Panjab University, Chandigarh for helping me get through the difficult times, and for all the emotional support, camaraderie, entertainment, and caring they provided.

I wish to thank my entire extended family for providing a loving environment for me. My employers at Indus Towers Ltd., Gujarat Gas Limited and DLF India Ltd deserve a special mention.

I would like to thank my loving wife "Kullu" and sister "Raminder" who have always supported and encouraged me to do all that I wish to do in my life. The birth of my son "Arjunveer" has been an icing on the cake and I thank god for giving me a small angel.

Lastly, and most importantly, I would like to thank my parents Late S.Joginder Singh Bhullar and Sardarni Lakhvinder Kaur Bhullar, who through my childhood and study career had always encouraged me to follow my heart and inquisitive mind in any direction this took me. My parents provided me with a loving home, one where an academic mind was celebrated, and my Dad's encouragement and full support has been a gift in my life. My parents bore me, raised me, supported me, taught me, and loved me. To them I dedicate this thesis.

(Harinder Pal Singh)
4-2-11