N Sasikumar, Mrs. Vinitha A S, Mrs. Remya R, Mrs. Resmi R, Mrs. Snehalatha P S, Mrs. Savitha E A, Mrs. Neethu, Mrs. Anupama, Mrs. Chithira, for their constant motivation during the tenure of my research activity. I extend my sincere gratitude towards Prof. S. K. Krishnan (Manager), Prof. K.N. Raju (Retd Principal), Prof. Krishnakumar R (Principal), teaching and non teaching staff, SSV College, Valayanchirangara, Ernakulam, Kerala for providing me a sufficient help when needed during my research.

I bow my head before the love and care of my parents and parents-in-law, for their untiring interest and patience they have shown in bringing me up, which have been motivating me to complete this work. All my family members were very encouraging and supportive towards this work. They have always cheered me in difficult times and had filled me with hope and optimism to complete my work. I record the deepest feeling of gratitude towards them.

Nothing can be compared to the love and sacrifice of my dearest husband Mr. Thirumeni K R, who has always been a passionate and patient companion to me. He gives me a boundless affection, understanding and constant encouragement during my research. Thank you dear for your love and care. I thank Kannan and Nandu, my sweet little sons, who sacrificed and co-operated the most.

I dedicate this work to my husband and my little sweet hearts as a small compensation for the time which I had not spent with them. There are innumerable others who I may have unknowingly not mentioned, I sincerely thank all of them for their help.

Last but not least I am grateful to Lord Krishna for his blessings and providing me strength and confidence to do all my endeavors. May your name be exalted, honored and glorified.
