ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I place on record a deep sense of gratitude to my guide and supervisor Dr B RAMESH BABU, Reader, Department of Library and Information Science, University of Madras, Chennai, for his invaluable guidance. He motivated me to pursue this research work and evinced keen interest in the subject. At every stage of my work he offered me advice, suggestions and encouragement in completing this work successfully.

I am highly indebted to Dr S Seetharama, Retired Head and Professor of DRTC, Bangalore, for providing me with valuable suggestions. He has also gone through the entire thesis very patiently and this has gone a long way in the final presentation of the thesis.

I have a very special word of thanks to Dr K S Raghavan and Dr Manorama Srinath for their encouragement during the course of my research. I also thank all the other teaching and non-teaching staff of the Department of Library and Information Science for their help.

I am very much indebted to my Archbishop, Most Rev Dr Arul Das James, Archbishop of Madras – Mylapore; Auxiliary Bishop, Rt Rev Dr Lawrence Pius and Bishop Rt Rev Dr Antony Devotta for their support and encouragement.
I thank Mr S Gopalakrishnan, Assistant Librarian, MIT, Anna University, for his valuable suggestions.

I extend my thanks to Dr Anbupalam, Lecturer, Department of Statistics, University of Madras, for all the help extended by him in data processing and analysis. I also thank Mr Aruldhas and Mr Stanislaus Michael, Department of Computer Science, Loyola College, Chennai for their assistance in design and development of database for Church Archival Materials.

My sincere thanks to the Officials of National Archives of India and the various State Archives in India, National Archives of Sri Lanka; Indian Council of Historical Research, Xavier Centre of Historical Research; Bishops, Priests and Persons in-charge of Church Archives in India for providing valuable information during the course of interview. I am also grateful to all the respondents, who have been good enough to spare their valuable time to fill up the questionnaire.

During the course of collection of literature, I have received help from several people: Ms Avila Pigeon, Ms Lilly Tenant, Rev Robert Irwin of Diocese of Fargo, Mr Kinga Perzynska of Catholic Archives of Texas, Dr Ching-Chih Chen of Simmons College, Boston, Fr Patrick, Mr Velankanni Raj, USA; Dr Michael Cook of the University of Liverpool, Dr Lucy Tedd and Dr Susan J. Davies of University of Wales, Ms Margaret Harcourt Williams of Catholic Archives Society, Mr Loutsten Dia, UK; Mr Hartmut Weber and Doris Bauchrowitz, Germany; Mr Ralph W. Manning, Canada; Dr M Sunder Raj, Tamil Nadu State Archives, Chennai. The Genealogical Society of Utah, USA for Microfilming the genealogical records of the Archdiocese of Madras – Mylapore and Mr Peter Bailey, UK for placing the list of microfilms on Internet; Mr Harold B Sundrasagara, Sri Lanka and Dr Arumairaj. I am grateful and thankful to all these people.

I am extremely grateful to Mr J Ignatius, Section Officer, University of Madras for his encouragement and support; Dr J Josephine, Professor and Head, Department of Journalism, University of Madras, Dr R Ambuja, Madras University Library, Dr John Morais and Dr Marlene Morais, Readers in Commerce, Guru Nanak College, Chennai for their help and inspiration.

I thank Mr Jim, Ms Sheeba, Ms Florence Chandran and innumerable Friends, Well-wishers, Priests and Sisters for their moral support and encouragement. I am thankful to Fr Michael Lourduswamy and Fr George Cheruvathoor for their encouragement and enkindling my drooping spirit. I wish to make special mention of my mother, brothers and sister for their silent prayers for the success in this venture.

Above all, I thank and praise God Almighty for giving me the spirit and strength to complete the study.

Fr A Vijay Kiran