ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This research work owes its inspiration to Prof. F.V.A. Scudder, my supervisor and guide, who has always been a source of strength and encouragement to me. I have gained a great deal from his indepth knowledge of his real time experience without which the present thesis could not have taken the present shape and focus.

Prof. R.N. Swarup, Head of the Department of Defence and Strategic Studies, extended his valuable help and guidance to the extent necessary in making this thesis.

Prof. V.K. Padmanaban, Professor, Department of Anna Studies for Public Affairs, a reservoir of multi-disciplinary knowledge yet with deep silence which articulates significantly is all pervasive in this work.

It is my pleasure and privilege to place on record my deep sense of gratitude to my colleagues and friends. Group caption R. Krishna Moorti, Dr. Malvia, Prof. Suresh Babu and Prof. R. Ranganadhan.

I acknowledge my thanks to University of Madras, its authorities, the library and its staff.
In this regard the most important library which I consulted is Defence Services Staff College, Willington where almost all Books, Journals are referred apart from consultations with defence personnals are done. Of the persons interviewed General K. Sundarji, the scholar-soldier, Lt Gen V.P. Malik Commandant. Defence services Staff College Willington Mr. K. Subramaniyan I.A.S., Former Director and Air Commodore Jasjit Singh, Director IDSA, New Delhi, are important.

I appreciate and acknowledge my friends and well-wishers who encouraged me with their comments, for and against the work, that put me in current perspective and balance in doing this work.
