Acknowledgement

Number of people, directly and indirectly, assisted and extended their support in carrying out this research work. I feel it is my duty to record and acknowledge their support with a deep sense of gratitude.

By the grace of God only, this work could be completed. No word of gratitude is sufficient to appreciate the efforts that my late mother, Mrs. Durgabai Toshniwal put in teaching me the first alphabet of the language and the life. I gratefully acknowledge the continuous inspiration and encouragement I always use to have from my father, Shri Bhawarlalji Toshniwal.

Words and expressions are insufficient to record my gratitude to my guide, Principal (Retired) Shri K. G. Gandhi, for his continuous encouragement and scholarly guidance. It was a privilege to work under him.

Many thanks to my employer, State Bank of India who were kind enough to give me the opportunity to carry out this research.

I am indebted to each and every sample beneficiary without whom the research would not have been carried out.

I acknowledge with appreciation, the whole-hearted cooperation extended by my colleagues from the Banks and Government Offices in the District in providing the necessary data.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to Prof. Shri V.L. Deshpande for his exemplary guidance, suggestions and inspiration. I am also grateful to Prof. Shri S.T. Khaddakar, Head, Department of Statistics, Shri Shivaji College, Akola for his valuable guidance.

I am indebted to every individual whose writings have been cited and quoted in the thesis.
I beg to acknowledge my sincere gratitude to the staff of library of Amravati University, Amravati, L.R.T. College of Commerce, Akola, State Bank Institute of Rural Development, Hyderabad, State Bank Staff College, Hyderabad, College of Agriculture Banking, Pune, Yeshwantrao Chavan Academy of Development Administration, Pune, National Institute of Rural Development, Hyderabad and Cranfield School of Management, Cranfield (U.K.).

The work would not have been completed but for my wife, Mrs. Suraj who rendered sacrifices and who was and continues to be generous in bearing with me.

My son, Dr. Manoj Toshniwal, daughters, Mrs. Padma Rathi and K. Mamata Toshniwal and daughter-in-law, Dr. Jaya Toshniwal did a lot in presentation of this treatise. My 10-year old nephew, Chi. Tushar deserves special appreciation for his respectful and diligent assistance in making my work more comfortable and enjoyable. May Almighty bless all of them with peace and prosperity for the noble duty they have performed.

Akola
D/- 25th August, 1999

N.B.Toshniwal
Researcher