ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is my bounden duty to place on record my sincere gratitude to Dr. R.S. Shivaganesha Murthy, M.A., Ph.D., Reader, Department of Sanskrit, Manasa Gangothri, Mysore, who accepted to guide me in my research work and whole-heartedly extended all help to complete the same. His advice and suggestions all through, at every stage, were of immense value. I have no words to express my indebtedness to him for his patience and encouragement.

I owe my gratitude to Vidwan Dr. H.P. Malledevaru, M.A., Ph.D., Professor and Head of Department of Sanskrit, who accepted me as a Research fellow in the Department and provided all facilities for my work. I must also remember late Dr. G. Marulasiddaiah, who was the Professor and Head of Department, when I reported myself as University Research fellow. He had evinced keen interest in my work.

I would be failing in my duty if I do not offer my respectful thanks to my teachers in the Department of Sanskrit, Manasa Gangothri, Mysore.
The Librarian and his staff of the Mysore University Library and the Director and the library staff of the Oriental Research Institute were very courteous to me and have provided me with all necessary books and journals and other materials. I am highly grateful to them.

Even as a student of M.A., I had a desire to do some work on Vyāsa-Bhäṣya. The Mysore University Fellowship gave me a chance to conduct research studies on Yoga-Sūtra and its commentaries. I sincerely express my thankfulness to the authorities of the University of Mysore for awarding me the Mysore University Fellowship during the years 1981 to 1984.

I wish to acknowledge here my indebtedness to all those authors and publishers whose publications have been used by me in preparing the essay.
