TABLE OF CONTENTS

DECLARATION........................................................................................................ iii
ACKNOWLEDGEMENT.......................................................................................... iv
ABSTRACT................................................................................................................ v
GLOSSARY.............................................................................................................. xiv
LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS ..................................................................................... xvii
MAP OF INDIA SHOWING THE STATE OF MIZORAM ........................................... xix
MAP OF MIZORAM SHOWING DIFFERENT DISTRICTS ........................................ xx
LISTS OF TABLES .................................................................................................. xxi
LIST OF GRAPHS .................................................................................................. xxii

INTRODUCTION...................................................................................................... 1

I. STATEMENT OF THE PURPOSE ........................................................................ 2
II. RESEARCH OBJECTIVES .................................................................................. 2
III. RESEARCH QUESTIONS .................................................................................... 3
IV. ELABORATION OF RATIONALE ...................................................................... 3
V. SCOPE AND LIMITATION .................................................................................. 8

VI. SURVEY OF LITERATURE .............................................................................. 9
   A. Literature on Education in Mizoram ............................................................. 10
   B. Literature on the History and Culture of Mizoram ....................................... 14
   C. Literature on Policies, and Practices of Christian and Secular Education .... 17

VII. RESEARCH METHODOLOGY ....................................................................... 19
   A. Methods of Research .................................................................................... 20
   B. Sources of Data .......................................................................................... 21
   C. Field Research Methodology ...................................................................... 23
   D. Development of Questionnaire ................................................................... 23

VIII. ASSUMPTIONS ............................................................................................... 25
IX. SIGNIFICANCE OF THE RESEARCH .............................................................. 25
CHAPTER ONE

BACKGROUND STUDIES FOR THE EDUCATIONAL MINISTRY OF THE BAPTIST CHURCH OF MIZORAM: MIZORAM BEFORE THE BMS
MISSIONARIES

I. THE SOCIO-RELIGIOUS AND POLITICAL CONTEXT
A. The People and The land
B. Characteristics of the Mizo Society
C. Religious Beliefs and Practices
D. The Institution of Chieftainship

II. TRADITIONAL EDUCATIONAL CONTEXT
A. Family: The Traditional Mizo Education Center
B. Home: The Traditional Center for Cultural Transmission
C. Educational Functions of the Parents among the Mizo
D. Contents of Mizo Traditional Educational Systems

III. ZAWLBUK (BACHELOR’S DORMITORY): THE MIZO
TRADITIONAL EDUCATION CENTER
A. Meaning, Origin and Purpose of the Zawlbuk
B. Administration and Functions of Zawlbuk
C. Zawlbuk: The Main Source of Mizo Traditional Education
D. Tlawmngaihna: The Code and Curriculum of Zawlbuk Education

IV. EDUCATION THROUGH ORAL TRADITIONS AND FOLKWAYS
A. Oral Traditions and their Educational Implications
B. Types of Folktales
C. Folk Songs and their Early Educational Value

CHAPTER TWO

A HISTORICAL OVERVIEW OF THE BCM EDUCATIONAL MINISTRY
AND ITS DEVELOPMENT UNDER THE AEGIS OF THE BMS

I. THE ADVENT OF THE BRITISH AND THE ADMINISTRATION OF MIZORAM UNDER THE BRITISH RULE
A. The State of Education in Mizoram Under the British Administration
B. Government-Run Schools
C. The Medium of Instruction for the Mizo Children

II. MISSIONARY EDUCATIONAL ENTERPRISES IN NORTH MIZORAM
A. The Arrival of J. H. Lorrain and F. W. Savidge
B. Background of the Missionaries
C. Introduction of the Mizo Alphabets
D. Opening of the First Mission School at Aizawl
E. Government Attitudes toward the Mission School

III. ESTABLISHMENT OF THE EDUCATIONAL MINISTRY OF THE
BMS IN SOUTH MIZORAM
A. The BMS at a Glance
A. 1. THE EDUCATIONAL GOALS OF THE BMS ACCORDING TO HISTORICAL IMPORTANCE ......................................................... 202

IV. TABULATION AND ANALYSIS FROM THE RESEARCH QUESTION A.2: EARLY PROBLEMS OF THE MIZO DURING THE BMS MINISTRY.

................................................................. 208

A. Religious- Cultural - Domain ................................................................. 208

1. Opposition and Persecutions .............................................................. 208

2. Problems Relating to Culture .............................................................. 210

B. Spiritual Domain .................................................................................. 213

1. Animism ............................................................................................... 213

2. Spirituality of the Mizo ....................................................................... 214

C. Socio-Economic Domains ..................................................................... 215

1. Poverty .................................................................................................. 216

2. Attitudes of Parents towards School ..................................................... 217

3. Attitudes toward Women ...................................................................... 218

4. Communication and Access .................................................................. 219

5. Excessive Drinking ............................................................................... 221

D. Educational Domain ............................................................................... 223

1. Illiteracy ............................................................................................... 223

2. Higher Education ................................................................................ 224

3. Language ............................................................................................. 224

4. Attitudes of Parents towards School ..................................................... 226

5. Paucity of Educational Institutions ....................................................... 227

V. TABULATION AND ANALYSIS FROM THE RESEARCH QUESTION ...................................................................................... 229

B.1. REASONS FOR THE INVOLVEMENT OF BCM IN EDUCATIONAL MINISTRY (EG) .................................................................................. 229

VI. TABULATION AND ANALYSIS FROM THE RESEARCH QUESTION ...................................................................................... 229

B.1. REASONS FOR THE INVOLVEMENT OF BCM IN EDUCATIONAL MINISTRY (LG) .................................................................................. 231

VII. TABULATION AND ANALYSIS FROM THE RESEARCH QUESTION B.2. INDEBTEDNESS OF THE BCM IN EDUCATIONAL MINISTRY (EG) .................................................................................. 233

VIII. TABULATION AND ANALYSIS FROM THE RESEARCH QUESTION B.2. INDEBTEDNESS OF THE BCM IN EDUCATIONAL MINISTRY (LG) .................................................................................. 236

IX. TABULATION AND ANALYSIS FROM THE RESEARCH QUESTION ...................................................................................... 238

C.1. EARLY METHODS AND PRACTICES OF THE BMS (EG) ............. 238

X. TABULATION AND ANALYSIS FROM THE RESEARCH QUESTION ...................................................................................... 240
C.1. EARLY METHODS AND PRACTICES OF THE BMS (LG) ..........240
XI. TABULATION AND ANALYSIS FROM THE RESEARCH QUESTION
C.2. WAYS OF BMS PIONEERING EDUCATIONAL MINISTRY (EG) .....243
XII. TABULATION AND ANALYSIS FROM THE RESEARCH QUESTION
C.2. WAYS OF BMS PIONEERING EDUCATIONAL MINISTRY (LG) ...245
XIII. TABULATION AND ANALYSIS FROM THE RESEARCH QUESTION
D.1. THE PRESENT EDUCATIONAL STRATEGY OF THE
BCM (EG) ...........................................................................248
XIV. TABULATION AND ANALYSIS FROM THE RESEARCH QUESTION
D.1: THE PRESENT EDUCATIONAL STRATEGIES OF THE
BCM. (LG) ...........................................................................250
XV. TABULATION AND ANALYSIS FROM THE RESEARCH QUESTION
D.2. OTHER EDUCATIONAL STRATEGIES OF THE BCM ..........253
   A. Social Transformation .......................................................253
      1. Selecting People Groups .............................................254
      2. Adult Education .........................................................254
   B. Educational System .......................................................255
      1. School Strategy .........................................................255
      2. Establishing a Residential School .................................255
      3. Emphasis on Quality Education ....................................256
      4. English Medium School ..............................................256
   C. Human Resource Development .......................................257
      1. Leadership Development ............................................257
      2. Emphasis on Job-Oriented Education ............................258
      3. Teacher Training ......................................................259
   D. Religious Education and Evangelistic Strategy of the Church ...259
   E. Findings of the Lay Leaders Regarding the Educational Strategies of the BCM ....................................................261
      1. Social Transformation .................................................261
      2. Rehabilitation Center ...............................................261
      3. Adult Education .......................................................262
   F. Educational System .......................................................262
      1. Formal Education ......................................................262
      2. Establishing a Residential English School .....................263
      3. Emphasis on Quality Education ....................................263
      4. English Medium School ............................................264
      5. Holistic Education .....................................................265
      6. Extra-Curricular Activities .........................................267
   G. Human Resource Development .......................................267
      1. Information Technology ............................................267
   H. Religious Education and Evangelistic Strategy of the Church ....268
      1. Establishment of a Theological College ..........................269
XVI. TABULATION AND ANALYSIS FROM THE RESEARCH
QUESTIONS E 1-4. FUTURE PROJECTION OF THE BCM
EDUCATIONAL MINISTRY .......................................................270
   A. Future of Evangelism .....................................................270
B. Contribution towards Nation Building......................................................277
C. Anticipated Change in the Overall Educational Ministries of the BCM......283
D. Concrete Ways of Developing the BCM Educational Ministries for the Future.........................................................................................289

CHAPTER FIVE ........................................................................................................297

MAJOR FINDINGS FROM FIELD RESEARCH AND DISCUSSIONS ............297

I. KEY FOUNDING PRINCIPLES OF THE EDUCATIONAL MINISTRY OF THE BMS AND THE BCM ..........................................................297
A. Education for Church Planting.................................................................298
B. Education for Evangelism........................................................................299
   1. Evangelism, the BMS Policy ..............................................................299
   2. Formal Schools as a Key Evangelistic Tool ......................................300
C. Education for Leadership Development ...............................................302
D. Education for Social Uplift ....................................................................304
   1. Change of Attitudes .........................................................................305
   2. Change of Attitudes towards Women ..............................................305
   3. Education for Unity .........................................................................306
   4. Education for Socio-Religious Welfare ..........................................306

II. PROBLEMS OF THE MIZO DURING THE EARLY PERIOD OF BMS EDUCATIONAL MINISTRY .................................................................308
A. Religious-Cultural Domains .................................................................308
   1. Persecutions and Oppositions .........................................................308
   2. Narrow Mindedness ........................................................................312
   3. Fear of Losing Cultural Identity ......................................................312
B. Spiritual Domain ..................................................................................313
C. Socio- Economic Domain ....................................................................313
   1. Poverty ...........................................................................................313
   2. Communication and Access .........................................................314
   3. Excessive Drinking .........................................................................314
D. Educational Domain ............................................................................314
   1. Attitude of Parents towards School Education ..............................315
   2. Attitudes towards Education of Girls ..............................................316
   3. Provisions for Higher Education ....................................................317
   4. The Problem of Coolie (forced labor) .............................................317

III. REASONS FOR THE INVOLVEMENT OF BCM IN EDUCATIONAL MINISTRY ......................................................................................318
A. Biblical Mandate ..................................................................................318
B. Member Care .......................................................................................319
C. Response to People's Need .................................................................319
D. Political and Economic Reasons ..........................................................320

IV. INDEBTEDNESS OF THE BCM ................................................................320

V. EDUCATIONAL METHODS AND PRACTICES OF THE BMS ..........321
A. Model School Extension ......................................................................321
B. Holistic Education ...............................................................................322
C. Encouraging Girls’ Education .............................................................. 323
D. Residential School and Co-Education School ...................................... 325

VI. WAYS OF BMS PIONEERING EDUCATIONAL MINISTRY................. 326
A. Literacy and Sunday School Ministry .................................................. 326
B. Monitorial System of Teaching-Learning and Teacher Training .......... 327
C. Extra-Curricular and Missionary Emphases ...................................... 328
D. Value Education .............................................................................. 328

VII. EDUCATIONAL STRATEGIES OF THE BCM................................. 329
A. Medium of Instruction in English ....................................................... 329
B. Targeting People for Education ......................................................... 330
C. Financial and Human Resource Investment ..................................... 331
D. Evaluation System ........................................................................... 332

VIII. OTHER EDUCATIONAL STRATEGIES FROM THE LEADERS’ VIEW ................................................................. 332
A. Social Transformation ....................................................................... 333
   1. Adult Education ........................................................................... 333
   2. Rehabilitation Center ................................................................. 333
B. Educational Dimension .................................................................... 334
   1. Formal Education ........................................................................ 334
   2. Establishing a Residential School ................................................. 334
   3. Emphasis on Quality Education .................................................. 334
   4. Holistic Education ...................................................................... 335
C. Human Resource Development ......................................................... 336
   1. Teacher Training .......................................................................... 336
   2. Emphasis on Job-Oriented Education ......................................... 337
D. Religious Education and Evangelistic Implication ............................... 337

IX. FUTURE PROJECTION OF THE EDUCATIONAL MINISTRY OF
   THE BCM ......................................................................................... 337
A. Future of BCM Evangelism ............................................................... 338
B. Contribution towards Nation-Building ............................................. 339
C. Anticipated Change in the Overall Educational Ministry of the BCM 340
D. Concrete Ways to Improve For Future Educational Ministry .......... 342

I. SUMMARY OF FINDINGS .................................................................. 346
II. RECOMMENDATIONS ...................................................................... 363
III. RECOMMENDATIONS FOR FURTHER RESEARCH ...................... 371