8. References:

References

References

76. Nadkarni KM., Nadkarni AK. Indian Materia Medica - with Ayurvedic, Unani-Tibbi,

81. Sharma P. V. Charaka samhita, Chikitsa stana – 26th Chapter (English).

82. Sharma P. V. Dravyaguna vijnan- Part II, Choukambha Publication, page 758.

88. Subhuti Dharmananda, Ph.D: Amla – Key Herb of Ayurvedic Medicine

90. Ayurvedic pharmacopoeia of India. Government of India, New Delhi SairamTV, 1999

99. Summanen JO: A Chemical and Ethnopharmalogical Study on Phyllanthus emblica (Euphorbiaceae). Academic Dissertation. To be presented with the permission of the Faculty of Science of the Universityof Helsinki, for public criticism in Auditorium XII, on August 4th,1999, at 12o’clock noon. University of Helsinki Department of Pharmacy Division of Pharmacognosy 2.

126. Caius JF. Medicinal and Poisonous Plants of India, Scientific Publishers, Jodhpur. 1986

131. Frode TS., Medeiros YS. Animal models to test drugs with potential antidiabetic activity. Journal of ethnopharmacology. 2008,

153. Indian Herbal Pharmacopia; Regional Research Laboratory; Jammu and Indian Drug Manufacturers Association, Mumbai; 1991,174.

154. Gupta AK.: Quality Standards of Indian Medicinal Plants; Indian council of Medical Research; New Delhi published by ICMR, 2003; 134
