I express a deep sense of gratitude to my research guide Dr. Niranjana, Professor, Department of Studies in Communication and Journalism, University of Mysore, with whose constant encouragement and guidance, the present work could see the light of the day. His enlightened, rich and varied experience helped me very much in understanding the complexities of the subject in the right perspective. Dr. Niranjana not only enriched my knowledge by his innovative idea, concepts and suggestions but also gave moral support at various crucial stages from beginning to the completion of the present work. Dr. Niranjana as an academician and as a great human being will always have special place in my heart.

I am also thankful to Dr. Rangappa Vice Chancellor, University of Mysore for providing an opportunity to do this study. I owe my deep sense of gratitude to my teachers Dr. Usha Rani, Dr. Maheshchandra Guru, Dr. Puttaswamy and Dr. Swapna, Dr. Mamata and non-teaching staff members of Department of Studies in Communication and Journalism, University of Mysore, Manasagangothri, Mysore and for their academic guidance and administrative support.

Thanks to my friend Dr. Dileep M.R, for his valuable suggestions and guidance throughout this study. I cannot forget my colleague Dr. Sanjay Tyagi’s constant encouragement and effort in helping me to analyse the collected data. I am also thankful to my friend Mr. Carlton Azeez for providing technical assistance whenever it was required.
I am grateful to Mr. Rajesh Nelyadi and Krishna Prasad Kumble for assisting me to conduct the experimental study in various schools of Karnataka and to prepare the question papers for the tests. Their teaching experience in primary schools has really helped in designing the research study.

My sincere thanks to all the heads and teachers of educational institutions of Karnataka, who have allowed us to conduct the study in their schools and also responded to my questionnaire.

I would like to place on record my deep sense of gratitude to my wife Keerthana. M, who stood with me in all odds of my life. With her constant support and co-operation, I could complete this thesis. I am very fortunate to have good parents and in-laws who have enabled me to come to this stage of my life. I take this opportunity to thank their inspiration and help.

I thank those whom who have helped me for this research in making it more meaningful and insightful. I may not be naming them individually but I place on record my sincere appreciation for their help. Thanks to each and every one.
