fin achievement of this nature needs co-operation and support from many for successful completion. It is my privilege to express my gratitude to my guide and mentor Dr. J.N. Sharma, Professor, Department of Gandhian and Peace studies, Panjab University, Chandigarh. Professor Sharma’s inspiration, expertise, deep insight and creative input helped me carry out this study. Moreover he not only provided an ideal atmosphere needed for any researcher to brighten his/her research career, but also he patiently and cheerfully goaded, prodded, pushed, and wheedled me to complete on time.

I owe special thanks to Dr. Manish Sharma, Chairperson, Department of Gandhian & Peace Studies, for encouragement to carry out the work in the department. I also express my sense of gratitude to all the faculty members, office staff and Ph.d. scholars of the department for their co-operation in accomplishing this research work. I am also thankful to the staff members of the Departmental and the Main Library of the Panjab University.

I also owe special thanks to National Council for Rural Institute (NCRJ), Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India), Shakar Bhawan, Fateh Maidan Road, Hyderabad for providing me Ph.D fellowship for three years. I am greatly benefited by the expert advice of Dr. S.V. Prabhath IAS, the then Chairman NCRJ, Professor C.V. Raghavulu former Vice Chancellor Nagarjuna University, Dr. K. Sudhakar Member Secretary NCRJ and Dr. D.N. Das Deputy Secretary. Thanks are also due to Dr. Somdatta Sinha, Indian Institute of Science Education and Research Mohali for her kind advise.

During this work I had the opportunity to meet Professor S.K. Sharma former S.V.C.; Professor D.Gopal Coordinator, Gandhian Studies Programme, Indira Gandhi National Open University, New Delhi and Professor R.S. Yadav, Chairman, Department of Political Science, Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra. I gratefully acknowledge their kind help and suggestions.

I also want to thank my all friends in the department, prominent among them are Waseem Saeed, Dr. B. S. Bedi, Dr. Kyanoush, Suresh and Kusum.

My deep regards are also due to Dr. Mrs. Rashmi Sharma, Dr. Mrs. Shahida Saeed. Thank you Usmaan Bhai, Muneer, Minak, Shaveri, Anju and Kanika for the kind help from time to time.

The hardest part is to find words to express my gratitude to Sh. N. R. Chauhan, my parents, didi Rachana and my elder brother Vikas.
