ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Words are, though an inadequate medium to express succinctly one's feelings of the heart, yet one has to invariably depend on them. This research output has been facilitated by many well wishers. I express my sincere gratitude to all of them.

First and foremost, I would like to acknowledge my thankfulness to Dr. M.T. Thiagarajan, Dean, School of Management, Pondicherry University, Pondicherry, who has been a persistent source of motivation and encouragement, for providing me an opportunity to enrich my research and analytical capabilities through the present program.

The depth of my gratitude and indebtedness to my research guide, Dr. M. Basheer Ahmed Khan, Reader, School of Management, Pondicherry University, may not be belittled by these few words of acknowledgment. His unswerving encouragement, critical and incisive evaluations, patience, thoroughness and expertise institute him as the real mentor of my academic as well as social personalities.

My earnest thanks are due to Dr. G. Prasad, Professor and Head, Department of Commerce and Management Studies, Nagarjuna University, Guntur, and Dr. K. Chandrasekhara Rao, Reader, Department of Commerce, Pondicherry University, and for their valuable insights and suggestions in the successful achievement of my research endeavors.

I thank Dr. G. Anjaneya Swamy, Reader, School of Management, Pondicherry University, Mr. Sudhakar, Assistant Registrar, Pondicherry University, and Dr. T.V. Narasimha Rao, Lecturer, St. Joseph's College. of Commerce, Bangalore, for their consistent support in overcoming the psychological and other hurdles that are inevitable for any researcher during the study period.

I put on record my gratefulness to Mr. M. Radhakrishna Murthy, Head of the Department of Politics, S.S.& N. College, Narasaraopet, and Mr. Joseph Dunston, Lecturer, St. Jude’s College, Thoothoor, for their help in translating the study questionnaire into Telugu and Tamil languages, respectively.

I extend my thanks to Dr. S.V. Narayanan, Professor, and Readers Dr. R. Paneer Selvam, Dr. G. Srinivasan and Dr. Prabhakara Raya, and other faculty members at the School of Management, Pondicherry University, for extending their cooperation and morally encouraging me in all my research activities.

I also thank Dr. S. Gunasekaran, Professor and Head, Department of Sociology, Pondicherry University, for his suggestions in the statistical analysis of the research results.

I acknowledge my gratitude to my friends M/s. A. Subramanyam Raju, T. Srinivas, Siva Rama Krishna, M. Anil Kumar, K.V.K. Prasanth Kumar and P. Srinivasan, who have patiently extended their support during different phases of the study.

I also acknowledge the help of Mr. Jayabalans, Office Manager, Mr. Ilangoan, Junior Assistant, Mr. Murthy, Personal Assistant to Dean, Mrs. Sagarani, Typist and other non-teaching staff of School of Management, Pondicherry University. I specially thank Mr. S. Kanagalingam, for his help in all the research related computer work.
I express my gratitude to the Chief Librarians and the staff of Ananda Ranga Pillai Central Library, Pondicherry University; Central Library, Indian Institute of Technology., Madras; Dr. Ambedkar Central Library, Nagarjuna University, Guntur and U.S.I.S., Madras, for their cooperation in the collection of the secondary data for the study.

I record my thanks to all the M.B.A. Students of 1990-92, 1991-93, 1992-94, 1993-95, 1994-96 batches and other hostel mates during the period, for making me feel at home through their friendly interactions.

I record my thanks to all the Small Scale Entrepreneurs who have been kind, patient and cooperative in providing the primary data for the study, without which the study would have remained incomplete and unrealistic.

I find the inadequacy of the medium to be the greatest while expressing my gratitude to my mother Mrs. P.N. Kamala Devi, my elder brothers M/s. P.N. Ravi Kumar, P.N. Chandra Kumar, and P.N. Kiran Kumar, and my brother-in-law Mr. K. Ramesh Kumar. But for their unceasing inspiration and motivation, the project would neither have been undertaken nor pursued till its completion. I express my heartful thanks to all of them, my other family members, relatives and friends.

While I gratefully acknowledge all the support received from different sources in carrying out this research, I own full responsibility for the omissions and commissions in this work.

Pondicherry
Date: 28 11 '94

P.N. Udaya kumar