Table of Contents

Chapter 1: Introduction 1
1.1. Traditional and Contemporary Views on Memory 3
1.2. Memory and Textuality 9
1.3. Poststructuralist Conception of the Textuality of Memory 13
1.4. The Inside is the Outside 20
1.5. The Politics of Memory 21

Chapter 2: The Autumn of the Patriarch: Gossiping History and the Carnival of Memory 34
2.1. Bakhtin and the Carnivalesque 48
2.2. Gossip and Rumour 54
2.3. AP: Gossip and Rumour as Countermemory 60

Chapter 3: The Book of Laughter and Forgetting: “Devil’s Laughter” and the Angels of Totalitarianism 84
3.1. Czechoslovakia and Communism 88
3.2. Utopia and Totalitarianism 93
3.3. Idyll and the “Desert of Forgetting” 99
3.4. Devils’ laughter and Forgetting 106
3.5. Problematics of Memory 114
3.6. Laughable Metaphors of the Idyll and Forgetting 124
3.7. The Struggle of Man against Forgetting 136

Chapter 4: Shalimar the clown: Re-membering “Kashmiriyat” 141
4.1. Globalization and Terrorism 144
4.2. Forgetting in the Discourse of Nationalism 146

Chapter 5: Conclusion 171

Works Cited and Consulted 183