ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Thanks are due to:

Professor T R Juneja, my revered supervisor whose constant encouragement, critical analysis and personal care has made me complete this work.

Chairman, Department of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Panjab University, for providing the necessary facilities.

University Grants Commission for financial assistance.

Dr R L Gupta, Reader in Pharmaceutics for lively interest and valuable suggestions during the course.

Mr Devender Pathak, my smart younger brother, to whom I don't know how to thank adequately.

Mrs Poornima Pathak, my wife whose immense patience and everlasting inspiration has helped me a lot.

My parents and sisters to whom I humbly dedicate my thesis.
