Amended Consumer Protection Acts

Highlights:

- Restrictive trade practices brought within ambit of Act.
- Class action suits allowed
- Goods bought by self-employed persons for earning their livelihood not covered under definition of 'commercial use'.
- Housing construction specifically brought within Act
- Complaints can also be made about deficiency in goods or services which have been agreed to be bought or availed of.
- Monetary jurisdiction of consumer courts increased.