Primary Sources

_______. "Books I Remember." Harper's Bazaar, 75 (April 1941), p. 82, 122 and 125.

"The Devil's Idlers." Saturday Review, 23 (March 15, 1941), p. 15.

"Mick." Literary Cavalcade, 10 (February 1957), pp.16-22 and 32.

Secondary Sources

Berry, Lee. "This World of Books." Toledo Blade, June 15, 1940, p.5.

Bogor, Mary Snead. "Ill Author's 'Livingness' Enters Book." Charlotte Observer, October 1, 1961, p.6-F.

Bowen, Robert O. Catholic World, 194 (December 1961), pp. 186-188.

Bromley, Dorothy Dunbar. "Boy, Star at 7, Doesn't Know He is Famous — Brandon De Wilde's Parents, Actors Themselves, Don't Want Him a 'Stage Brat'." New York Herald Tribune, February 3, 1950, p.22.

Bryan, Don. "Novelist Had Local Relatives." Columbus (Ga.) Enquirer, September 30, 1967, pp.1,2.

_____. "For Famous Writer's Cousin — New Show Has a Special Meaning." Columbus (Ga.) Ledger, November 2, 1967, p.25.

Charles, Timothy. "Deprived Spirits." The Scotsman (Edinburgh), June 3, 1972, Week-end Scotsman, p.3.

Clark, George E. "Volume Features Selected Works of Carson McCullers." Jackson (Tenn.) Sun, January 23, 1972, pp.12-C.

Doar, Harriet. "'Love ... Is at the Heart' — Battling Ill Health, Carson McCullers Writes On." Charlotte Observer, May 9, 1963, p. 10-C.

---

Fadiman, Clifton. "Books — Pretty Good for Twenty-Two." New Yorker, 16 (June 8, 1940), pp.77-78.

Hendrick, George. "'Almost Everyone Wants to be the Lover': The Fiction of Carson McCullers." Books Abroad, 42 (Summer 1968), pp.389-391.

Heth, Edward Harris. "'Ballad of the Sad Cafe — Carson McCullers' Novels and Stories, New and Old, Offered in One Exciting Volume." Milwaukee Journal, June 3, 1951, Editorial Section, p.5.

Loewinsohn, Joseph A. "Loneliness of the Human Spirit is the Theme of Magnificent Story—Young Author's First Novel is Called Masterpiece." Atlanta Constitution, June 2, 1940, Magazine and Feature Section, p.6.

Anon. "Lonely and Unusual People Wandering in a Dream World." Miami (Fla.) Herald, June 10, 1951, p.4-F.

MacDonald, Edgar E. "The Symbolic Unity of The Heart is a Lonely Hunter." In Frieda Elaine Penninger, ed. A Festschrift for Professor Marguerite Roberts, on the Occasion of Her Retirement from Westhampton College, University of Richmond, Virginia. Richmond: University of Richmond, 1976.

_______. "Carson McCullers' Descent to the Earth." Descent (Texas Christian University), 17 (Fall 1972), pp.54-60.

