ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First of all, I praise Baba ji, the almighty, for granting me the wisdom, health and strength to undertake this research task and enabling me to its completion.

Working on the Ph.D. has been a wonderful and often overwhelming experience. It is hard to say whether is has been grappling with the topic itself which has been the real learning experience, or grappling with how to write papers and proposals, give talks, work in a group, stay up until the birds start singing, and stay focus .. In any case, I am indebted to many people for who contributed in some way to the work described in this thesis and making the time working on my Ph.D. an unforgettable experience, realizing that those whom I owe the most I cannot thank enough, and that the things for which I am most grateful, I cannot put into words.

First of all, I am deeply grateful to my guide Dr. Ganga Ram Chaudhary. To work with you has been a real pleasure to me, with heaps of fun and excitement. You have been a steady influence throughout my Ph.D. career and have always been patient and encouraging in times of new ideas and difficulties. You have listened to my ideas and discussions with you frequently led to key insights. Your ability to select and to approach compelling research problems, your high scientific standards and your hard work set an example. I admire your ability to balance research interests and personal pursuits. Above all, you made me feel a friend, which I appreciate from my heart.

I am very happy to have the opportunity to express my deep gratitude to my co-guide Prof. A.S. Ahulwalia. Thank you sir, for accepting to be my supervisor. My work has greatly benefited from suggestions and kind encouragement from you. You have oriented and supported me with promptness and care. I am thankful to you for giving me intellectual freedom in my work. I gratefully acknowledge you for your understanding, encouragement and personal attention which have provided good and smooth basis for my Ph.D. tenure.

I owe my deep gratitude Dr. Harminder Pal Singh, Chairman, Department of Environment Studies, who was the source of inspiration for me in my early days of Ph.D. career and who taught me many things. Your good advice and support has been invaluable on both an academic and a personal level, for which I am extremely grateful.

I would like to acknowledge Prof. S.K. Mehta, Chairman, Department of Chemistry. Thanks for your support and for providing a pleasant and productive working atmosphere. I am also grateful to you for your useful feedback and insightful comments on my work.
I have been very privileged to get to know and to collaborate with many other great people who became friends over the last five years.

Every result described in this thesis was accomplished with the help and support of my friends; Neha, Ravneet and Sakshi. You guys taught me what Chemistry is?

Priya has inspired me many new research directions. We worked together on the topic of dyes and without her efforts my job would have undoubtedly been more difficult.

Over these five years, Qudrat has been a faithful friend. I thank her for her friendship, love, and unyielding support. She was always beside me during the happy and hard moments to push me and motivate me. Thank you dear for sharing these years with me.

Many of the results on spectroscopy and dye precipitation mechanisms would not have been possible without Pratibha and Kulwinder, Khushboo. I gained a lot from your vast chemistry knowledge and scientific curiosity.

I also acknowledge my good friends Komal and Chhavi for their well wishes.

Furthermore, I want to thank my hostel friends; Qudrat, Neha, Gurdeep, Shikha, Anju, Aman and Promila, who put up with me through the whole Ph.D. process, helped me with personal challenges and for sharing so many things. Those long nights in common room and hostel ground will not be forgotten.

Dr. Gurpreet has significantly improved my work. Thank you for supporting me from the very beginning of my Ph.D. career. It’s my fortune to gratefully acknowledge the support of Savita mam, Khushi mam, Bhawna mam, Rishu mam and Sanjay sir. I would like to thank all my colleagues and friends; Shefali, Prabhjot, Kamaljot, Arun and Rajkumar in my lab. I am also indebted to the M. Sc. Students; Navjot, Aanchal and Rohini. I had great pleasure to work with you guys. Thanks are due to new addition in our lab; Yesbinder, Moondeep, Rekha, Sandeep, Preeti, Priyanka and Rohini.

The thesis would not have come to a successful completion, without the help I received from the staff of the CIL, Department of Chemistry; Kulwinder sir and Sandeep sir. I would be remiss if I did not thank Rajinder sir, Jagdish sir, Suresh sir, Lalit sir and Ajay sir, who deserves credit for providing much needed assistance with administrative tasks, reminding us of impending deadlines, and keeping our work running smoothly.

I am grateful to U.G.C, India, for the fellowship that allowed me to pursue my Ph.D.

Above all, I would like to thank my dear husband Veenu who supported me in every possible way to see the completion of this work. Thank you, Veenu for your love and encouragement when I needed it the most. Your tolerance of my occasional moods swin testament in itself of your unyielding devotion and love.

I would like to thank Mumma and Papa ji for giving so much love, and taking good care of me during the final period of my PhD. Thank you Mumma for taking care of and kitchen during my absences and Papa ji for making me so punctual. Thank you with heart!

I also thank Bibi ji, Shuchi bhabhi, Vicky Bhavia and Innu for their good will.
I am thankful to my bhavia, Dr. Gulshan Bansal and bhabhi, Yogita for their suggestions both on personal as well as on academic front.

I thank my bibi for her utmost moral support, love and care in all the aspects of my life.
I miss you bibi at this stage of my life.

My most heartfelt thanks to my loving sister, Pinka, little angel Manavi and new Samar @. Pinka has been a source of great emotional support over these years. Thank you your constant support through the ups and downs of my personal life and academic career.

Finally, I would like to thank my Mumma and Papa for their spiritual protection, their amazing love and support. A special thanks to Papa for your guidance, at many difficult situations and for standing right behind me with all his warmth, sensitivit understanding.

I dedicate this thesis to you my lovely Papa.
