Acknowledgement

I express my first and foremost thanks to the Director, Anthropological Survey of India, Kolkata for giving me the opportunity to undertake this project and also permitting me to utilize the data for my doctoral thesis and this thesis dedicated to former Deputy Director, late Dr. A.C. Srivastava, Anthropological Survey of India, Southern Regional Center, Mysore as a token of deep reverence and gratitude for his guidance (1998) and introducing research topic in the beginning.

I owe much to Dr. K. Rajasekhara Reddy, Reader, Department of Studies in Anthropology, University of Mysore, Mysore, for his valuable guidance in finalizing the present thesis and for the keen interest and constant encouragement in the successful completion of this thesis.

I wish to express my sincere thanks to Dr. Suresh Patil, Superintendent, Anthropologist, and Head of office, Dr. S. Yaseen Saheb, Superintendent, Anthropologist, Sri, Kamal Kanth Bagai, Anthropologist; Anthropological Survey of India, Southern Regional Centre, Mysore for the keen interest shown by them in my work and for all possible help rendered by them during the period of my study.

I am thankful to Dr. H. Maralusiddaiah Patel, Research associate and Dr. A. Chandra Shekar, Research associate: Anthropological Survey of India, for their help and guidance in the analysis of data in the computer.

I am very much grateful to Dr. S. Manoharan, Assistant, Linguist, and T. Thimmaiah for their help and encouragement during my study. I also wish to render my sincere thanks to Smt. Sita, Librarian, Anthropological Survey of India, Southern Regional Centre, Mysore for her help and cooperation in my reference work.

I take pleasure to keep on record here my deep sense of gratitude to Prof. Surinder Nath, Department of Anthropology, University of Delhi, Delhi, for providing valuable suggestions on standardizing of measuring techniques.

I am deeply indebted to all the concerned officials of the Vivekananda Girijana Kalayana Kendra Biligirirangana hills and the Soliga brethrens of Chamarajanagar and Mysore districts, Karnataka, who extended immense cooperation during my fieldwork and data collection.

Mysore,
August 2005.

(K E S H A V A, S.)