ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This study was prepared under the able guidance and meaningful direction of Dr. Krishnamurthy, M.A., Ph.D., Lecturer, Department of Studies in Geography, University of Mysore, Mysore. With sincere gratitude I take this opportunity to acknowledge my deep indebtedness to him for his counsel and encouragement, for providing the academic stimulus and making objective criticisms on the draft.

I am also thankful to the University of Mysore, particularly the current Chairman of the Department of Studies in Geography, Dr. Rajashekara Setty, for providing me an opportunity to undertake research work at the Department. My thanks are due to Dr. P. Jayaramaiah, Professor(Retired), Dr. P. D. Mahadev, Professor(Retired), Professor K. N. Udayakumar and Mr. C. Chowdaiah, Reader at the Department of Studies in Geography for their keen interest in the progress of the present work. I am also most thankful to Dr. A. N. Somashekar (for his inspirational comments and suggestions), Dr. B. N. Shivalingappa, Ms. Asima Nusrat and Mr. Nagaraj for their encouragement and help to complete the work. I would like to thank my friends Ramu, Chandrashekara, Manjunath and Jayasree for their constant encouragement and help during my field work.
I record my sincere thanks and acknowledgement to Mrs. Geetha and Mr. Raghavendra Rao, Department of studies in Geography and my student Srinkataprasad for their assistance all through the period of my research.
