ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I make use of this opportunity to express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. C. Parvathamma M.A., Ph.D. (Manchester), professor and head of the Department of Studies in Sociology and social work, (Rtd), University of Mysore. But for her guidance, encouragement and scholarly criticism it would not have been possible for me to complete this research work.

My sincere thanks are due to Sri. S. Yoganarasimha, M.A. Chingamani, Sri. S. Sathyanarayana, for their timely help and co-operation.

I also thank the R.M.O. of K.R. Hospital, Cheluvamba Hospital, Superintendent of Holdsworth Memorial Hospital, authorities of other hospitals and nursing homes for permitting me to conduct field work in their institutions. I am also thankful to Doctors and patients for their co-operation in the collection of data.

I did my field work during 1978 and 1979. I teach in a local undergraduate college for women, which is a government college, and I have made use of my vacation periods to do my research work. I thank Sri. Y. Bhagavan and Sri. M. Prasannakumar, the principals who have helped me directly or indirectly to complete my research work.

I also thank Miss. Veena of Computer Bank and Sri. Ramasheshu and Sri. Gopal P.H. for preparing the type script.
