APPENDIX T

Syllabus for Members/Managing Committee Members and office bearers of Primary Co-operative Societies.

- What is co-operation? - Principles of Co-operation and their application.

- Structure and objectives of various Co-operative Societies and what benefit could be derived from various co-operative societies.

Credit Society:

Strategy for revitalisation of Primary Agricultural Co-operatives (PACS) -

Present Scenario - Emerging Trends - Programme of Business Development Planning (B.D.P.) in PACS

Why B.D.P. - Resource Mobilisation-Business Diversification-Enhancing Members Participation-organising in active members into self-help groups-Promote marketing of the village produce.

a) P.L.D.B.
b) Marketing Cum Processing Societies.
c) Consumer's Cooperative Stores
d) Milk Producer's Cooperative Societies

Duties and obligations of members towards the society.
Duties of the Manager/Secretary of the Society.
Duties of Managing Committee members.
Election of the Managing Committee.
Society's Bye-laws - their importance and application.
Various types of deposits.
Rate of Interest on loans and deposits.
Important record of the society-pass books. Confirmation of loans etc.
Audit and Inspection. Duties of Member at the time of Audit and Inspection. Compliance of Audit and Inspection reports.
Disputes.
Problems of Cooperatives.
Role of Cooperatives in adult education.