ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I thank Dr. M. Narasimhachari, former Prof. and Head of the Department of Vaishnavism, University of Madras and Dr. R. Ananthan, former Prof. and Head of the Department of English, R.K.M. Vivekananda College, Chennai, for their encouragement and help.

I am indebted to Dr. M. Muralidharan, Prof. and Head of the Department of English, R.K.M. Vivekananda College, Chennai, for advising me to become a student of Prof. Panchapagesan who firmly believes in sincerity, industry and honesty.

Words cannot help me to express my sense of gratitude to my teacher Dr. K. Panchapagesan who gave me freely of his entire time (even after retirement), guidance and advice and helped me to meet some great scholars.

Equally great is my debt of gratitude to Dr. K. Chellappan, former Prof. and Head of the Department of English, Bharatidasan University, Trichy, and Director of State Institute of English, Chennai, who helped me in many ways, despite his business and engagements.

It is indeed difficult for me to pay my debt of gratitude, even in a meagre measure, to Dr. C. T. Indra, Prof. and Head of the Department of English University of Madras, who could help me by proffering very valuable advice and suggestions, despite her tight schedule and pressing engagements.
My heartfelt thanks are due to

a) The Management of my school for permitting me to study,

b) The Chief Librarian Mr.L.S.Ramaiah, CIEFL, Hyderabad, A.P.

c) Mrs.Parvathi, Chief Librarian and Mr.Vasudevan, Office Assistant of the International Institute of Tamil studies, Taramani,

d) Mrs.Kamala, Librarian in-charge of the ‘Theses’ section, Madras University Library,

e) My colleagues, numerous friends and a few relatives who encouraged me and helped me in many ways.

f) Miss.Malathi and Mr.Hari of “Omshakthi Computer Centre”, Adyar, who performed the task of typing and making corrections with extraordinary patience and dexterity.

g) Last, but by no means the least, my wife, but for whose patience, love and affection, constant encouragement and help, I could not have dreamt of completing my study.
