Acknowledgements

During my school days, I aspired to become a researcher. Today, my desire is on its path to materialise with the motivation, co-operation, help and a great deal of efforts of many people in many ways. It is indeed not sufficient enough to acknowledge them in this formal manner with a few words. But, I have bountiful heartfelt feelings of gratitude for them.

First and foremost, I owe my profound gratitude and ever remain deeply indebted to my Professor and Guide Prof. B.K. Tulasimali, M.A., Ph.D., Professor and Chairperson, Department of Economics and Co-operation, University of Mysore, whose inspiration, encouragement and scholarly guidance helped me to complete this research work. Madam’s helpful suggestions, poise and confident approach, constant encouragement and overall moral support, meticulous reading made it possible for me to complete the thesis and to see the light of the day. I wish to express my sincere, hearty and grateful thanks to her.

I am grateful to Prof. J. Shashidhara Prasad, Honourable Vice-Chancellor and also Sri. Hosmath, Registrar, University of Mysore for permitting me to undertake my research in this prestigious University.

I would like to express my sincere thanks to Prof. D.S. Leelavathi, Professor for her valuable advice and suggestions for my research work.

My special thanks to Mr. Mahesh, Senior Lecturer, Department of Economics and Co-operation, University of Mysore, for his valuable help. Being a specialist in Quantitative Methods, he offered valuable comments and suggestions, which helped me a lot during the evaluation process stage of the study.

I owe my regards to Prof. C.K. Renukarya, Prof. S. Indumati, Prof. Manjappa.D. H, Prof. K.E. Sriramappa, Prof. A.R. Vishwanath, Dr. M.Indira, Dr. Mahendra Kumar, Smt. N.K.Gayathri, Mr. K.C.Basavaraj, Mr. S.M.Basavaraj, Dr. Uma and all the teaching faculty for their encouragement. Also, my sincere thanks to Mr. Srikanth and Mr. N.M. Malleshiah the non-teaching staff of the department who deserve my gratitude for their kind help and support to me all through my research programme.

I would like to express my thanks to Dr. Chandrashekhar, General Manager, NABARD and the Chief Librarian of BIRD Lucknow for their support and help during the study.

I am very much thankful to Sri. K.R.Lingappa and Sri. B. Srirama Reddy, Former Chairmen, erstwhile Sahyadri Gramin Bank, Head Office, Shimoga, for their motivation and support to undertake this research work.

I thank all the officials of erstwhile Sahyadri Gramin Bank and the Lead Bank Office of Shimoga District for their support and cooperation throughout my research work.

I am indeed thankful to Bankers Institute of Rural Development, Lucknow, College of Agricultural Banking (of RBI) at Pune, Regional Training college of NABARD, Mangalore, Regional Offices of NABARD at Bangalore and Chennai for their help and cooperation.

I would like to express my gratefulness to Prof. N. Diwakar Rao, Head, Department of Management Studies, JNNCE, Shimoga for his inspiration and advice during the course of study.

A research of this nature requires a lot of fieldwork, discussions with variety of people involved in the SHG activity such as the bank staff, NGOs and local opinion makers. My sincere regards to all the respondents and the number of poor members of SHGs, who in fact, are the center of focus of the subject study, and to those among them whom I have met during the course of the research work for their valuable primary information for the study.

I am thankful to fellow research scholars Mr.K.Suresh, Mr.Prema Kumara, Mr.Jayaprakash, Mr.Siddaraju and Mr. Gopalakrishna for their help and cooperation during the course of this thesis.

Most importantly, I am thankful to my parents, Smt. Vishalakshamma and Sri. Vivekananada Swamy P.M who brought me up with virtuous culture and made me a worshipper of knowledge. In fact, my beloved father dreamt about me to become a scholar and provided me all the support and motivation all through these days. And, in fact, they are my continuous source of inspiration and motivation. I also thank my sisters Smt. Shantha and Smt. Aiswarya and brother Sri Prithviraj Swamy P.M for their unstinted support and motivation for taking up this study.

Further, I am thankful to my wife Smt. Jayalatha.V.Swamy and my lovely son Ujjwal for their constant support and forbearance during the course of this research work.

Finally, I thank all those who have helped me directly or indirectly in making this thesis a reality.
