ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Words fail me to thank Dr. S.C. Gakhar, a senior Lecturer at D.A.V. College of Education, Abohar, who has been a constant source of inspiration during the course of this study. I express my heart-felt gratitude to him for his painstaking efforts, benevolent nature, insightful and scholarly guidance and valuable suggestions in improving the quality of work placed at my disposal. He gave me full liberty to encroach upon his precious time even to his great inconvenience. The completion of the present work under his valuable and competent supervision is a matter of great privilege and only due to him the research work has come in the present shape. He has proved a source of encouragement, a beacon guide and a well informed person.

I stand under a heavy obligation to Professor (Miss) S. Gakhar, Chairperson, Department of Education, Panjab University, Chandigarh for her invaluable and critical suggestions which she gave me from time to time without any restraint for improving the quality of the research report.

I am highly thankful to Professor J.N. Joshi, Department of Education, Panjab University, Chandigarh for his valuable suggestions and constructive criticism.
I also offer my sincere thanks to Principal Dr. S.F. Duggal of D.A.V. College of Education, Abohar for his constant encouragement.

The manifold help and full co-operation in the collection of data for this study rendered by respondents, parents, teachers and principals of the various schools and colleges is also gratefully acknowledged.

Warm thanks are also due to various authors whose valuable works I have freely consulted and quoted in my research work.

I express my indebtedness to Mrs. Saroj Gakhar, wife of my worthy guide, Dr. Naveen Sethi, my husband and my other family members for their encouragement and co-operation throughout the period of research work without whose patience and sacrifice, it would have been difficult to complete the thesis.
