CHAPTER IV

DUTIES, POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE POLICE

identify problems and situations that are likely to result in commission of crimes;

create and maintain a feeling of security in the community;

provide necessary services and afford relief to people in distress situations;

guide and assist members of the public particularly the poor and indigent, disabled or physically weak and children who are either lost or find themselves helpless on the streets or other public places;