It’s my esteemed privilege to express my gratitude to all those who have been instrumental in some way or the other in the successful completion of this project. To begin with, I bow my head to The Almighty who has been the power supreme and with whose blessings today I have become eligible to fulfill a long cherished dream of my life.

My heart is brimful of celestial bestowal for my esteemed and erudite teacher and mentor Dr. V. R. Sinha, Professor and Chairperson, University Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Panjab University, Chandigarh. I reverently and honestly acknowledge my profound gratitude for his constant inspiration, persistent interest, vigilant supervision and constructive criticism, which were the primary determinants responsible for the successful realization of this mammoth task. His faith in my ability, encouragement in my efforts and trust in judgments made my work a personal joy and a source of immense professional satisfaction.

I am grateful to Council of Scientific and Industrial Research (CSIR) for providing me Senior research fellowship to conduct my research work. I wish to express my sincere thanks to Dr. Sunil K. Arora, Professor, Department of Immunopathology, PGIMER, Chandigarh for providing me access to his esteemed lab and well coordinated collaboration for specific studies of my research work. I solicit my sincere thanks to Ms. Maninder Kaur (CPEBS, Panjab University, Chandigarh), for her precious help and support rendered to me.

I shall always remain indebted to my parents who have always taught me the value of sincere efforts and hard work. I am actually falling short of words to express my deepest sense of appreciation and gratitude for their unconditional love, blessings, sacrifice and moral as well as financial support throughout the period of toils, turmoils and tribulations. I avail this rare opportunity to express my exult in extending genuine appreciation to my beloved brothers Gaurav, Vaibhav and sister in law Shobhita; who have not only supported me but also encouraged me and stood beside me as and when required.

Special thanks are extended to Rakesh Kumar for his sincere support and cooperation at the final stage of my thesis submission. Another word of thank to Dr. Jayant, Honey, Ruchita, Azaki, Damanjeet, Sudhir and Mahendra for their support and cooperation.
It gives me immense pleasure to express my sincere appreciation and gratitude to my friend Rajendra Kumar, Doctoral Research Scholar, PGIMER, Chandigarh, who has provided unparalleled support and cooperation for cellular level studies of my project. He has not only spent several awaken nights for my studies but also inspired me to strive hard during the tenure of the research investigations. Inspite of the burdened time schedules; he has always priorities my work on top. Thank you Rajendra for everything you have done to me.

The exceptional technical support and cooperation extended to me particularly by Mr. Chaman Lal (Store Incharge, UIPS), Mr. Devial (Scientist, DST Lab, UIPS), Mr. Mahendra Singh (Scientist, CIL, PU, Chd.), Mr. Navtej Singh and Uattam Singh (Deptt. of Photography, PU, Chd.) Mr. Swaroop and Mr. Buta Singh (Lab staff, UIPS) Mr. Sham Singh and Mr. Saheb Sigh (Animal House Facility, UIPS) is respectfully acknowledged.

Words are too frail for me to express my inward emotions of ineffable indebtedness in penning down my sagacious sense of gratitude and all admiration towards my wife Garima, who has not only motivated and inspired me but also always stood by my side during this phase of acid-test. I really appreciate her for bearing my frustrations and discussions every day. All I can say that whatever I am today is just because of her undying love, affection and support and I owe it all to her. My deepest affection is extended to none other than; my son, Shashvat for bearing with his father’s mood alterations and anger in odd times and for compromising the scarcity of time which has to be spent with him. His angelic smile always made me feel delighted even in the hours of dejection. I extend my deepest gratitude to God for being blessed with such a wonderful family.

Finally, I would like to thank all those who have directly and indirectly supported and helped me during the entire tenure of my doctoral research.
