ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is my pleasant duty to acknowledge with gratitude, my academic indebtedness to Dr. Satya Prakash Singh, my thesis supervisor, whose guidance and kind encouragement enabled me to execute this work in time. Almost all chapters bear the stamp of his scholarly guidance. I am indebted to Dr. T.N. Kapoor, Professor and Chairman, Department of Commerce and Business Management, Panjab University, for providing me the perennial stimulation in the pursuit of my Ph.D. Programme.

Thanks are due to officials working at the State Headquaters of Rural Development and Panchayat Raj Departments of the Government of Uttar Pradesh. I am, at the same time, thankful to host of officials and non-officials in the sampled districts and blocks without whose co-operation and response the present work would not have had the realistic and analytical orientation.

I am thankful to the University Grants Commission, New Delhi, for granting me the Teacher Fellowship which facilitated me financially in executing the thesis work.

I am indebted to my family for surviving the days of arduous and affording me maximum time to fulfill my ambition of a Doctorate in Commerce and Business Management. I must record my thanks to Sri M.K. Jain, Principal, Sahi Jain (Post Graduate) College, Najibabad, U.P., for his elder brotherly encouragement and help without which this work could not have been completed.

Chandigarh

(ARVIND KUMAR SHIVASTAVA)