ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

"Ideal teachers are those who use themselves as bridges over which they invite their students to cross, then having facilitated their crossing, joyfully collapse, encouraging them to create bridges of their own."

– Nikos Kazantzakis

The great statement about the ideal teacher is honestly followed by my research supervisor, Dr. Kavita Singh whom I would like to express my deep and sincere gratitude. With her enthusiasm, her inspiration, and her great efforts to explain things clearly and simply, she brought out the best in me. Throughout my thesis-writing period, she provided encouragement, sound advice, good teaching, good company, and lots of good ideas. I would have been lost without her.

My sincere thanks to Prof. R. S. Dhankhar, Dean, Faculty of Management Studies, whose constructive comments and ideas during the seminar were of great value in this study. My warm thanks to all the faculty members, Faculty of Management Studies for their encouragement.

I am indebted to Prof. M. L. Singla and Prof. Sunita Singh Sen Gupta, Faculty of Management Studies, for their valuable guidance and support in my research work.

I am grateful to the Directors and Management of all the companies for granting the permission to carry out my research in their company and to all the respondents for sparing their time in filling in the questionnaire.

I am thankful to my entire family for providing a loving environment for me. My Grand Mother in Law who is now in her heavenly abode, my parents for their blessings, My father in law and my mother in law who were particularly supportive, brother Deepak and sister Madhu who gave me their unequivocal support throughout, brother in laws Navdeep and Pardeep, Sister in laws
Richa, Nidhi and Mansi who always supported me to achieve a fulfillment of this research.

Above all, it would not have been possible to write this doctoral thesis without the unconditional love and support of my husband, Sandeep, who has always been a constant source of encouragement for me during all the stages of research work. I owe my loving thanks to my son Ansh and daughter Atulya as I have disregarded their affection due to my research work.

Last but not least, thanks to God for my life through all tests in last four years. You have made my life more bountiful. May your name be exalted, honored and glorified.

(Poonam Khurana)