ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I wish to express my sincerest gratitude and sense of profound indebtedness to Dr. A.K. Srivastava, my research supervisor, whose words of inspiration and competent guidance went a long way in making this arduous study so pleasurable and rewarding a pursuit.

My grateful thanks are also due to Professor N.R. Sheth, Indian Institute of Management, Ahmedabad, for critically going through the research design, manuscript of a few chapters and making very useful suggestions.

My deep and sincere gratitude is due to Professor T.N. Kapoor, Dean, Faculty of Business Management and Commerce, Panjab University, for his unstinted help and encouragement. I am also immensely grateful to Professor B.N. Mehrotra, Chairman, Department of Commerce and Business Management, Dr. S.D. Tripathi, Dr. M.L. Tandon, Dr. C.P. Babu and other faculty members for their kind co-operation and help. I also express my thanks to the members of the staff of the departmental library and office for their willing assistance.

I shall be failing in my duty if I do not express my thanks to Mr. A.B.M. Ghulam Mostafa, Secretary, Ministry of Labour and Industrial Welfare, Mr. Ashraf Ali, Labour Adviser, Ministry of Labour and Industrial Welfare, Mr. S.M.A. Hafiz, Director of Labour, Mr. Manzur Murshed, Chairman, Bangladesh Jute Mills Corporation, Mr. M.R. Chowdhury, General Manager (ERD), Bangladesh Jute Mills Corporation, Mr. Nurul Islam Babu, Acting...
General Secretary, Bangladesh Chatkal Sramik Federation, Mr. Michir Ahmed Bhuyan, General Secretary, Bangladesh Patkal Sramik Federation, and Mr. Kumar, Director, ILO Area Office, New Delhi, who were very prompt in providing me with all sorts of facilities and feed my queries on issues relevant to this study. My heart-felt thanks are also due to those managers, union leaders and workers who extended to me their ungrudging co-operation and help while collecting data.

I am highly grateful to the Ministry of Education and Culture, Govt. of India, for providing me a fellowship under the Indo-Bangladesh Cultural and Academic Exchange Programme. In the same way, I am grateful to the Ministry of Education, Govt. of the People's Republic of Bangladesh, for selecting me to pursue higher studies. I shall be failing in my obligation if I do not make grateful acknowledgement to the University of Chittagong, my parent institution, for granting me the study leave and to the Panjab University, for extending me all the necessary facilities for the completion of this study.

I wish to place on record my sincere appreciation of the help given to me by Mr. A. Awal Khan, Mr. M.A. Sattar, Mr. Ataur Rahman, Mr. Mainul Islam Chowdhury, Mr. Hafiz Ahmed, and Mr. Giasuddin Manik in collecting data.

My sincerest gratitude is due to my revered father Md. Nazmul Alam and mother Mrs. Dure-Jahan Begum, who have always been a constant source of inspiration and guidance to me. My loving gratitude is also due to my wife, Mrs. Fazilatun Nesa, whose patience, forbearance and sacrifice greatly encouraged me to complete this work.

Finally, my thanks are due to the various authors who contributed to my interest in collective bargaining and on whose writings I have drawn heavily in the present work.
