CONTENTS

Chapter I
HISTORICAL EVOLUTION OF INDIA-China

TRADe FROM ANCIent TIMES TO THE ADVENT OF BRITISH EAST INDIA COMPANY IN BengAL IN 1765

First Phase: References in Mahabharta;
Chang Ch'ien's Report of trade.

Second Phase: Kanishka and Pan Chao;
Periplus of Erythrean sea;
Fa-hien's Fo-kuo-ki.

Third Phase: Hieun-Tsang's Ji-yu-ki;
Tibetans and trade through Central Asia; Burma and Assam routes; Arabs and Central Asian trade.

Fourth Phase: Overland trade during the Sultans; Marco Polo's references of trade and Kublai Khan; Testimony of Ibn - Battuta.

ABBREVIATIONS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Pages

XI

XII - XIV

1 - 19
Fifth Phase: Overland trade during the Mughals; William Finch's account of Central Asia Trade; Mir Jumla's endeavours to reach China through Assam; expansion of sea trade; British East India Company in Bengal.

CHAPTER II EARLY BRITISH EFFORTS TO OPEN UP TIBET THROUGH NEPAL AND BHUTAN

(i) Nepal and expedition of Captain Kinlock;
(ii) Bhutan and intercession of Tashi Lama of Tibet;
(iii) George Bogle's Mission to Lhasa in 1774;
(iv) Samuel Turner's mission to Lhasa in 1783;
(v) Tibeto-Nepalese Crisis of 1786-92;
(vi) Macartney's mission to China in 1793;
(vii) Abdul Kadir's mission to Nepal in 1795;
(viii) Anglo-Nepal War (1814-18) and the Treaty of Sagauli;
(ix) Moorcraft Missions to Western Tibet (1812) and Ladakh (1820-1822)
CHAPTER III

COMKAR C TREATY OF 1870

(i) British vis-a-vis the Sikhs and the Dogras;
(ii) Anglo-Sikh Wars and Treaties of Lahore and Amritsar;
(iii) Boundary Commissions of 1843 and 1847;
(iv) Reports of the Panjab Officials about Central Asian trade;
(v) Henry Cayley as the British Commercial Agent at Leh;
(vi) Commerce treaty of 1870 between the British and Maharaja Ranbir Singh of Jammu and Kashmir.

CHAPTER IV

Leh-Kashgar Routes Through Karakoram and The Valley of Changchenmo and to China Through Central Asia

(i) Leh-Kashgar routes through Karakoram; Winter route or Zamistani route; Summer route or Tabistani route.
(ii) Leh-Kashgar routes through the valley of Changchenmo; Western Changchenmo route; Middle Changchenmo route; Eastern Changchenmo route.
(iii) Central Asian routes to China;
Silk road or the northern Central Asian route; Imperial highway or the southern Central Asian route.

CHAPTER V COMMODITIES OF EXCHANGE THROUGH LADAKH:
Imports:
Silk; Shawl-wool, Pashm; Musk (Kasturi); Tea; Borax; Bhang; Gold-dust; Zari etc.
Exports:
Opium; shawls; brocade; Saffron; Indigo etc.

CHAPTER VI OVERLAND TRADE WITH CHINA THROUGH ASSAM
(i) Warren Hastings and Assam trade;
(ii) Cornwallis and Assam trade;
(iii) Captain Welsh's expedition to Assam in 1793;
(iv) Anglo-Burman War and the treaty of commerce of 1826;
(v) The British and the hill-tribes of Assam.

CHAPTER VII BRITISH RELATIONS WITH THE HILL-TRIBES OF ASSAM TO 1873
(i) The Bhatias;
(ii) The Akas;
(iii) The Daflas;
(iv) The Abors;
(v) The Mishmis;
(vi) Inner Line Regulation I of 1873.

CHAPTER VIII OVERLEAP ROUTES TO TIBET AND CHINA THROUGH ASSAM AND COMPOSTURES OF TRADES.

158-182

(i) Lohit route or Sadiya-Rima route;
(ii) Lhasa-Udalguri route.

(iii) Imports:
Silver bullion; Salt; Gold-dust; Woollen-Clothes; Cow-tails or Chowries; Musk; Deer-skins; Lama-swords. Smoking pipes of Chinese manufacture; Horses; Wax; Rubber, Majeeth; Chinese Silk; Ivory; Mishmi-tita etc.

(iv) Exports:
Sugarcane; Pepper vine; Poppy; indigo; mustard seeds; Tobacco; Betelnut; Ginger; Rice; Cotton cloth; Tea; Saltpetre; Elephant tusks; Buffalo horns; Hides; Lac; Hudsilk; Tussa cloth; Glass beads; Corals; Pearls; Dry fish etc.
CHAPTER IX

OVERLAND TRADE WITH CHINA THROUGH BURMA

(i) Anglo-Burman trade up to 1852;
(ii) Michael Byres' mission to Burma in 1795;
(iii) John Crawfurd as British Resident at Ava (1827-30);
(iv) Henry Burney as British Resident at Ava (1829-37);
(v) Explorations of Burma-China routes by R.D. Pemberton, Dr. Richardson, S.F. Hanny etc.
(vi) Commerce treaty of 1862;
Arthur Phayre as first Commissioner of Pegu; Arthur Phayre's two visits to Mandalay; Signing of Anglo-Burma Commerce treaty of Dec. 1862;
(vii) Clement William as First British Agent at Mandalay;
(viii) Captain E.B. Sladen as British Agent at Mandalay;
(ix) Commerce treaty of 1867;
Colonel Fytche, the new Chief Commissioner of British Burma; Colonel Fytche's visit to Mandalay in Oct. 1867; Anglo-Burma Commerce treaty of Oct. 1867;
(x) Captain Sladent's exploring party to Yunnan from Bhamo in Jan. 1868;

(xi) Fall of Ta-li, the Yunnan capital in 1874.

(xii) Raymond Sergary's mission to China through Bhamo in Feb., 1875;

Sergary's murder on 22 Feb. 1875;

Colonel Saber's enquiry mission of Nov. 1875; Withdrawal of British Resident from Mandalay in 1879.

Chapter X  Land Routes to China Through Burma ...

... 214 - 238

(1) Bhamo-Yunnan route through T'eng Yueh.

(ii) Kyitkyina to T'eng Yueh via Sadon and Seema;

(iii) Lashio to T'eng Yueh and Burma Road.

(iv) Imports:

Silk; Gola-leaf; Vermillion;
Sulphur; Honey; Bees-wax; Opium; Tea;
Orpiment; Bales; Ponies; Musk; Furs etc.

(v) Exports:

Rice; Salt; Cotton; Amber; Ivory;
Precious-stones; Deer's horns;
Feathers of blue-jay; British woollens etc.
Appendix A: Commerce Treaty of 1870 (with Kashmir)
B: Commerce Treaty with Ava (1883)
C: Commerce Treaty with Burma (1860)
D: Statistical Data of Imports and Exports

Bibliography:

I Primary sources
(a) Manuscripts from M.A.I.
(b) Published Documents;
(c) Reference Works and Reports.

II Secondary Sources
(a) Books;
(b) Journals.

Maps
(i) Sadiya-Rima Route .. facing page 163
(ii) Lhasa-Udalguri route .... 171
(iii) Bhamo-Yunnan Route .... 214

(From Site)
(iv) Leh-Kashgar Routes through Karakoram and Changchenmo .. 70

(From National Archives, New Delhi F.D.Pol.a, June 1871, Kos. 560-97)
(v) Central Asian Routes to China... 82
(From Basil Davidson's Turkistan alive)