ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The researcher sincerely expresses his debt of gratitude to Dr. R. Shanmugasundaram, Department of Psychology, Presidency College, Madras, for his valuable guidance and supervision of this work in an encouraging manner at every stage of progress of the study. The researcher is grateful to him for all his kindness.

The researcher thanks the Director, Tamilnadu Institute of Labour Studies, Madras, for permitting him to do this research work. The researcher takes the opportunity to thank Dr. V.P. Krishnamoorthy, the former Professor and Head of Faculty of the Tamilnadu Institute of Labour Studies for his timely help and encouragement during the course of this research work.

The researcher is grateful to the authorities of Madras Refineries Ltd., Madras, for their permission to undertake this study. The researcher owes his thanks to Thiru A. Loyola, Manager (Personnel) and his colleagues; the office bearers of the Madras Refineries Employees Union and the Madras Refineries Officers Association for their kind help and hospitality. The researcher also thanks all the respondents of the study for their co-operation.
A work of this nature would not have been completed without the advice and moral support of well-wishers. The researcher acknowledges the valuable and precious advices of Dr. D. Subbiah, Dr. D. Kumaran, Dr. G. Vijayaram, Mr. M. Kannan, Mr. V.G. Thyagarajan and Mr. G. Krishnamurthy.

The researcher appreciates the wonderful work of Mrs. Leelavathi Elumalai, who has made the script of the thesis into a good shape.

Last but not the least, the researcher records the patience of his wife Mrs. Valarmathi for sparing him from the domestic responsibilities during the course of the study.

E. ILAMATHIAN