ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I bow my head in profound gratitude to God the Almighty who inspired me to undertake this research and gave me all the graces all throughout to accomplish this project. Praised be his name forever!

I remain eternally grateful to my father late Joachim Rodrigues and my mother Monthy Rodrigues for making me what I am today and for their all-round support and blessings.

The first person I approached before undertaking this research was Rev. Fr. Paul D’ Souza OCD my professor of Philosophy since 1990. I acknowledge gratefully the unconditional support and all the help he has given me in spite of his age, every time I approached him, starting from the selection of the proper theme, the preparing of the synopsis and stage by stage guidance right up to the conclusion of the research. Rev. Fr. Dr. Gregory D’ Souza OCD, retired professor of the Department of Studies in Christianity, University of Mysore also took great interest in the selection of the topic and the progress of this research work.

This research would not have been realized but for the able direction and supervision of a proper guide in the person of Dr. M. Vijayalakshmi, Assistant Professor, Department of Studies in Philosophy, University of Mysore. I thank her sincerely from the depth of my heart for volunteering to guide me and for offering suggestions and corrections and for her keen interest and ever-ready availability all through the course of this research.

The Chairperson and Associate Professor Dr. H. L. Chandrashekara always assured me of any help and Professor and Chairman, BOS Dr. M. Ramachandra encouraged me always and did the procedural work without any delay on his part, thus helping me to expedite the work. Associate Professor Dr. S. Venkatesh, and Assistant Professor Dr. M. Daniel always inquired about the progress of my research, which was a further boost. I thank all these professors of the Department of Studies in Philosophy of the University of Mysore from the bottom of my heart. for their intellectual inputs, timely help, friendly nature, continual support and constant encouragement.

Dr. V. N. Sheshagiri Rao, Retd. Professor helped me initially in all the procedures, as I was new to the department. Dr. C. Gangaraju my senior in research was my constant support and help. Dr. Naganna, the guest faculty had special consideration for me. My humble thanks to them and to all the Post-Doctoral Fellows, Research Scholars, Post-Graduation students and the non-teaching staff of the Department of Studies in Philosophy.

I undertook this research during the tenure of Rev. Fr. Archibald Gonsvalves OCD as the Provincial and am completing it during the term of Rev. Fr. Charles Serrao OCD. I thank both of them and their councillors for the due permission, encouragement and for financing this project.

I would be failing in my duty if I do not mention the Rector, staff, students and the librarians of Pushpashrama, Institute of Philosophy and Religion for the accommodation and availability of books needed for this research.

I am greatly indebted to my former community members at Dhyanasadhana, Mysore and the present ones at Tapovana, Kushalnagar for their moral support and for keeping me free.

My friends Mr. & Mrs. Sindhu Laju volunteered to lend a helping hand to me in typing out a couple of paragraphs and did the formatting very meticulously. Rev. Fr. Dr. Oswald Crasta OCD, the dean of Pushpashrama, corrected the end notes and the bibliography. Mr. Lawrence Miranda designed the cover page. I am extremely grateful to them all.

My brothers and sisters along with their family and all my relatives and friends in India and abroad prayed for me constantly and patted my back to go ahead. My sister Mrs. Hilda Rodrigues and her family gifted me with a badly needed Laptop which was a timely help. May God bless them all abundantly!
