There is a good number of the people at the gross-root level, who have rendered their unconditional cooperation in the completion of this treatise. They provided first hand information and helped the investigator to make an objective based assessment. I am highly indebted to all of them for their kind cooperation.

I am thankful to my learned supervisor, Dr. N. A. Nadeem, Reader, Department of Education, whose keen interest, able guidance and insistence on better quality inspired me to work hard. My interest in the present research work could have not seen the light of the day, but because of the expertise and commitment on the part of my learned supervisor. It is all because of his deep insight in research, that I could compile, analyse and interpret the data collected for the purpose, in a proper perspective. I have no word to express my thanks and gratitude to Dr. N. A. Nadeem for supervising the work with dedication and commitment despite his busy schedule.

I am highly indebted to Prof. A. G. Madhosh, Dean and Head, Faculty of Education, who despite his busy schedule of engagements offered a number of valuable suggestions for the over-all improvement of this treatise. He was very kind to extend every possible facility available in the Department. I am also thankful to Prof. A. G. Madhosh in his capacity as Director, SRC, University of Kashmir for his kind encouragement in this academic venture and also allowing me to proceed on the study leave.

I am thankful to senior colleagues of the Department of Education namely Dr. A. H. Zargar, Dr. G. M. Malik and Dr. A. R. Rather for their guidance in this matter. I am also thankful to Dr. M. I. Mattoo and Dr. M. Y. Ganaie for their help in completing this assignment.

The Literacy Achievement Tests and Interview Schedules have been constructed and standardized by the present investigator and a number of the experts have been consulted at various stages for this purpose. I shall be, in fact failing in my duty, if I do not express my indebtedness and thanks to all the experts concerned who provided their valuable suggestions for improvement of the Tests.
The investigator is also thankful to the District Project Officers, Assistant Project Officers, Supervisors, Instructors and Learners, who during the collection of the data, offered their full and whole-hearted co-operation, despite their multifarious activities.

My thanks are due to the Librarians and Library Staff of the M.A. Library, AMU, Aligarh; Delhi University, Delhi; Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi; Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra; Jammu University, Jammu; Indian Adult Education Association, New Delhi; State Resource Centre, Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi; State Resource Centre, Literacy House, Andhra Mahila Sabha, Hyderabad; State Resource Centre, Jaipur and the Directorate of the Adult Education, New Delhi for their cooperation. The library staff of the Department of Education and that of the Iqbal Library, University of Kashmir helped me through-out in completion of this work. I am thankful to all of them for their cooperation.

My special thanks are due to Dr. M. A. Peer, Director, Computer Centre, University of Kashmir for providing the necessary facilities in processing the data. Dr. Khurshid Qadri, Programmer, Computer Centre, University of Kashmir, provided expert and technical assistance in processing and compiling the data in a scientific way. I am highly grateful to him for his expert assistance.

I am extremely thankful to my colleagues in the State Resource Centre namely Ms Fouzia Ashai, Mr. Showkat Farooqi, Mr. Qadri for their kind co-operation.

I am also thankful to the University of Kashmir for granting one year's study leave in my favour.

My special thanks to M/s Computer Vision, 120, Sadurbal, Sgr. for taking all the pains in typing the manuscript.

Last but not the least, I am thankful to my children and other family members who extended full co-operation at each and every stage of this work. They were really a great source of inspiration and strength for me.
