ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is my pleasure to record my profound gratitude and sincere appreciation and thanks to each and every one who have helped me in this research endeavor.

This study has been done under the able guidance and meaningful direction of Dr. Sugitha Suvarna. M.A., Ph.D., Reader, Department of Studies in History, University of Mysore. I take this opportunity to record my deepest indebtedness to my guide for her advice and encouragement and for providing the academic stimulus and making objective criticisms on the earlier drafts.

I express my deep gratitude to the Vice-chancellor, Registrar and administrative staff of the University of Mysore for providing me an opportunity to conduct research work in their reputed organisation. I thank the University Grants Commission, New Delhi for awarding Junior Research Fellowship to carry out this Ph. D. work, without which it would have been impossible to finish this project.

I am also thankful to the following faculty of Department of Studies in History, Manasagangotri, Mysore-9, namely Dr. Syed Azam, Ex. Chairman; Dr. Sebastian Joseph, Ex. Chairman; Prof. Rajanna.R., Chairman; Professor O. Anantharamaiah, Ex-chairman and Present Vice Chancellor, Tumkur University; Professor Shivanna, Ex-Chairman; Professor Madegowda, Dr. Aswathanarayana, Dr. Sadashiva.K, Dr. Saraswathi.N, Dr. Puttaiah, Dr. Nayakawadi.Y.H, Somashekar G.T., Mr. Gurusiddaiah, Smt.Gangamma, Dr. Meera Sebastian, Smt. Nanda Kumari, Sri Mahadev, Smt. Usharani, Sri Chaluvaiah and other members of the Department of Studies in History, University of Mysore for their encouragement and invaluable suggestions in finalising the thesis.
I cannot forget the blessings showered on me by my Guru Dr. H.V. Sreenivasa Murthy, Dr. Suryanatha U. Kamath, Dr. Ashok shettar, and Dr. A. Sundara to take-up this challenging endeavour.

I remember on this occasion with love and affection my fellow research scholars namely Jayanna, Yogesh, Savitha kumari, Siddaraju, Smt. Pampadevi, Smt. Anitha, Smt. Indumathi Patil and Jagadeesh for their help and cooperation in the course of research work.

I extend my sincere thanks to the Director, National Archives of India, Janapath, New Delhi & Sri Biradar, National Archives, New Delhi; the Research officer Tamil Nadu State Archives, Egmore Chennai; the Director Karnataka State Archives, Vidhanasoudha, Bangalore; Chief Archivist, Regional Archives office, Mysore and the staff in the above mentioned archives, for their kind cooperation while collecting primary sources in respective departments.

I am deeply indebted to the staff members of Mysore University library, Mysore; staff members of Bangalore University library, Gnanabhara, Bangalore; staff members of Karnataka University library, Dharwad; staff members of Mythic society library, Bangalore; staff members of Indian Council of Historical Research, Bangalore; staff members of Nehru Memorial Museum library, New Delhi; staff members of Crafts Council of Karnataka, Malleswaram, Bangalore, for providing the related literatures and reports. I take this opportunity to thank Mr. Rajendra Kodambalkar Technical Assistant, Department of Studies in History for providing books, Journals and proceedings for my Research work. I find no words to express my gratitude to Mr. Dayananda Murthy, Prop. Srusti Computers, who persevered a lot for neatly typing this thesis work and bringing it out in an attractive manner. I thank the prop. U.K. Fashions and garments Harapanahalli who got the photographs of salt maunds. My special greetings are due to Sri Suresh Babu, CTI, for photographing the iron works of Ghatti Hosahalli and to Smt. Hemalatha C.J. for the photos at Janapada Loka Ramanagaram

I am highly thankful to the members of artisan community who have helped me by sharing their experiences and antecedents. They were also able to throw some light on the past history of their craft during my fieldwork. In this regard my sincere thanks are due to Sri G.V. Lokeshwarappa, Sri Sannaningappara Kasturappa and M. Chandrappa of Ghatti hosahalli village and Kumbli weavers of Medleri Village.

I record my deepest gratitude and sincere thanks to my elder sister Smt. H. Kirana, younger sister H. Madhushri, Mother H. Lalithamma, Father H. Rudrappa, H.N. Shivasharana, H.N. Girish, Sharada and all my family members and relatives for inspiring and encouraging me throughout my research work.

I am deeply thankful for the information provided by Shri Vijay Kumar Shekdar, Lecturer; Shri Sadashivappa.K.B. and Kurubara Eshwarappa; and the following faculty of the Bangalore University namely Dr. Chandrashekar. S., Smt. Usha, Dr. Jamuna, Dr. Vasu Malali, during the course of my research work.

I take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks to my dearest friends Swamy, Girish.S.N., Prasannakumar, UmeshKuri, Dharma Reddy Koti, Dr. Nagachari, Prakash Myagery, Kantaraju.N., Manjunath, Hanumantha rao, Sunil, Santhosh Hattaraki, Divakar.C.J., Shabbir Bhasha Ghanti, Smt. Shabana Thabassum, S.R. Patil, Mantye swamy, Govindappa, Ramanujayya, Dr. Maya and Hemalatha.C.J. and all my friends and well wishers who helped me in one way or the other.

I am grateful to Sri Gurumallaiah, J.S.S.T.I.C.E. for helping me to get migration certificate from Bangalore University.

Place: Mysore
Date: July, 2007

(Veerendra Patil.H)