Knowledge is the key to success in life. Education is the source of knowledge. Teacher is the beacon of education. It is my immense pleasure to express my sincere thanks and deep sense of gratitude to my beloved teacher, guide, mentor and well-wisher Dr. D. S. Guru, a young and a dynamic personality known for his enthusiastic commitment, dedication and discipline in research. His inspiration, eagerness to impart knowledge and untiring efforts helped me to reach the desired goal of this doctoral work. He taught me the way of analysing problems and finding solutions to them. He made me to realize that hard work is the root cause for the success and there is no substitution to hard work. He cultivated in me the qualities of discipline, dedication, determination and confidence, which are essential to achieve something good in life and to reach the desired goal. More than a teacher and a guide, he is a guardian to me, who always identified and listened to my needs during my research tenure in the department. His friendly attitude helped me a lot to discuss the problems openly and to complete the work. Without his guidance and encouragement this research work would not have come out.

Moral support, kind hearted encouragement and timely help are essential for one to succeed in his work and develop a good career. I express my heart felt thanks to Prof. P. Nagabhushan who was the key person in motivating me to take up research. He was the one who sowed in me the research desire during my masters. I extend my sincere thanks to Dr. G. Hemanth Kumar who always encouraged, helped and advised me during my research work.
I also extend my sincere thanks to Dr. Lalitha Rangarajan, Mrs. L. Hamsaveni and Mr. Suresh for their suggestions, wishes and moral support during my research endeavor.

A friend in need is a friend indeed. I should not forget the help and the services rendered by my friends who made me rich being always with me, by giving me the gift of hope, who made me rich by providing me the gift of hope and a shove in the right direction especially when I hesitated. It is my pleasure to express heartfelt thanks to my research colleagues Mr. R. Dinesh, H.S. NagendraSwamy, Mr. Naveen for their timely help during my research tenure and also while preparing the thesis. I would like to thank Ms. Punitha, Mr. B.H. Shekar, Mr. Nagesh, Mr. Manjunath Aradhya, Mr. Noushath, Mr. Nagappa U. Bhajantri, Mr. Angadi, Mr. Suraj, Mr. Prakash and Ms. Chennamma.

I also thank my other research colleagues Dr. P. Shivakumar, Dr. Ramesh Babu, Dr. Sanjay Panday, Mr. Shrikanth Murthy and Mr. Ravishankar for their wishes and caring words. I thank all my friends and elders who helped me directly and indirectly to complete my research work.

I wish to recall the encouraging words by Late. Sri. Panduranga Naidu and also his wife, parents of Prof. P. Nagabhushan for their moral support and encouraging words.

I take this opportunity to thank the family of my guide, Smt. Sunitha for her care and moral support. I wish to recall the moments when she used to prepare the snacks and invite us for dinner, during the times when the discussions extended beyond late in evening.

I am thankful Mrs. Lakshimi Bhushan wife of Prof. P. Nagabhushan and also his daughter Chi. Poornima for their love, affection, care, hospitality and best wishes to complete my research work.

I thank the parents, sisters, brothers, brother-in-laws of my mentor Dr. D.S. Guru for their love and wishes.

I thank my parents who brought me to this world, showered their love and affection on me, took care at every moment, prayed for my progress, helped their level best to educate, stood behind me in every success, inspired me to be a good human being and to achieve a success. I am very lucky to have such parents who always blessed me for my progress. I also thank my sisters and brother-in-law for their love, and moral support, which made me to forget all my stress and tensions during my research work.

I take this opportunity to thank Dr. Basavaraj Anami, Dr. Murali, Mr. Vasudev, Dr. Anandkumar, Dr. Manohar Pai and all the teachers, and senior research scholars for their best wishes along with valuable suggestions during my research endeavor.
