ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express deep gratitude to my research guide Dr. U. Lakshminarayana, Reader in Education under whose incessant and inspiring guidance the study was conducted. His suggestions, timely help and encouragement enabled me to conduct this work systematically.

I acknowledge my profound indebtedness to Dr. Dorasami, Head of the Department of Education, Regional Institute of Education, Mysore, for his support, encouragement and advice.

I am grateful to Prof. G. Ravindra, Principal, Regional Institute of Education, Mysore, Prof. S.A. Shaffi, Principal and Prof. Bansal, Head of the Department of Education, Regional Institute of Education, Bhopal, for providing all the necessary facilities in the Department.

I take this opportunity to express my gratitude to Dr. Yasodara Head of the Department of Education, University of Mysore for her valuable suggestions and encouragement.

I places my profound gratitude to Dr. Sudha V. Rao, Reader in Population Education, Regional Institute of Mysore, from whom I received initial help and guidance. She has been a source of encouragement throughout the study.

Mr. A.C. Josy, former lecturer in Education, Regional Institute of Mysore helped me in manifold ways at different stages of this study. My sincere thanks goes to him.

I sincerely thank Sri S. Nagaraj and the staff of the Library of Regional Institute of Mysore, and the Librarian and staff members of Regional Institute of Bhopal. I also thank and gratefully remember the Librarians and staffs of Universities of Mysore, Kerala and Calicut for their encouragement and cooperation.
I am deeply indebted to the Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment, New Delhi, for the Award of Research fellowship, which helped me to carryout this research. I am extremely thankful to the Secretary of SC/ST Development, Department and the Director and the Staff of Scheduled Tribe Development Department of Kerala, The Director and Staff of Tribal Research Institute of Calicut (KIRTADS), and the Tribal Development Officials and Staff of Wayanad, for their recommendation and support.

I owe a sincere debt of gratitude to Rev. Fr. Mathew Kattady, the former Manager of Sacred Heart Higher Secondary School, Dwaraka. He is not only accorded the necessary permission, but was a source of high inspiration throughout this study. I also wish to express my gratitude and obligation to the Manager, Principal and Staff of Sacred Heart Higher Secondary School, Dwaraka for their encouragement.

Mr. Thomas Chandy, former English lecturer of Gomateshwara Mahavidyalaya, Shravanabelagola and Rev. Fr. Gregory Fernandis Ofm, Atmajyothi, Mysore, diligently reviewed the draft and suggested modifications. Rev. Fr. Joseph Edakkary extended his help at crucial moment, especially towards the completion of the thesis. I acknowledge my deep gratitude to them.

I profoundly express my deep gratitude and obligation to Rev. Sr. Espirit, Superior General, Rev. Sr. Celine Arackal, Provincial Superior of Sacred Heart Congregation. My former provincial superiors Rev. Srs. Little Therese and John Mary were the source of inspiration and motivation. It would not have been materialised without their constant support and encouragement.

I am deeply grateful to my colleagues and companions, in the community for their continuous support. I am very much thankful to the superiors and members of my community in S.H. Study House, Dwaraka and Hrudaya Jyothi, Mysore.
Rev. Fr. Varghese Mattamana, Assistant Director, Carithas India, New Delhi, as a friend extended his whole hearted support and encouragement throughout this study. I acknowledge my gratitude.

I am extremely thankful to the government officials and staff members of the Education Department of the State of Kerala and the District of Wayanad.

I profoundly thank the Head Masters, staff and students of selected schools and the members of the household and dropout students of different part in Wayanad for their co-operation and support.

I am deeply grateful to my parents and other family members who supported and encouraged me during the period of study. I acknowledge the sincere help and support received from Rev. Dr. Thomas Kannany, Professor of Philosophy, Ruhalaya, Major Seminary, Ujjain, and Rev. Frs. Jose Kochupara and Joseph Akkatukudy for their help. Mr. Sunil K.J. spent his valuable time accompanying me to several difficult places in Wayanad during the field study. I sincerely thank him.

I sincerely thank Mr. M. Praveen Kumar and Staff for their computer printing and binding the thesis and also for their hospitality and co-operation.

As a religious and a teacher I was also concerned about the education of tribal children, with whom I developed an intimate relationship. Through them I am in close contact with several tribal families. This intimate relationship motivated me to undertake this study. I am grateful to all members of tribal community especially those who actively participated in my field study.
